The family had just moved. The young woman was feeling a little 31. It was Mother's Day — and she was 800 miles away from her parents.

She had 32 them that morning, and her mother had mentioned how colorful their backyard was now that spring had arrived. Later, she told her 33 how she missed those lilacs in her parents' yard. "I know where we can find some," he said. "Get the kids and come on." So off they went.

Some time later, they stopped at a 34 and there were lilacs all around. The young woman 35 up to the nearest bush and buried her face in the flowers. 36, she picked some. Finally, they returned to their car for the trip home. The woman sat smiling, surrounded by her flowers.

When they were near home, she shouted “Stop,” 37 quickly and hurried to a nearby nursing home. She went to the end of the hallway, 38 an elderly patient was sitting in her wheelchair, and put the flowers into her lap. The two 39, breaking into laughter now and then. Later the young woman turned and walked back to her family. 40 the car pulled away, the woman in the wheelchair waved with a smile, and held the lilacs tightly.

“Mom,” the kids asked, “41 did you give her our flowers?” “It is Mother’s Day, and she seems so 42 while I have all of you. And anyone would be cheered by flowers.”

This pleased the kids, but not the husband. The next day he 43 some young lilacs around their yard.

I was the husband. Now, every 44, our yard is full of lilacs. Every Mother's Day our kids gather purple lilacs. And every year I remember that smile of the lonely 45 woman. And that has become a forever touching memory of my life.

六、阅读理解（共 15 小题，计 30 分。其中第一节 10 小题，计 20 分；第二节 5 小题，计 10 分）

第一节：阅读下列短文，从每题所给的四个选项（A、B、C 和 D）中选出最佳选项。

When a tornado touched down in a small town nearby, many families were ruined. Afterward, all the local newspapers reported some of the families who suffered the hardest. And a particular picture especially touched me. A young woman stood in front of a totally destroyed mobile home with her young boy and a tiny girl, eyes wide with confusion and fear. I noticed that their sizes closely matched ours. And this would be a good chance to teach my children to help those who are less fortunate.

I gathered my 7-year-old twins, Brad and Brett, and 3-year-old Meghan and explained: “We have so much, and these poor people now have nothing. We’ll share what we have with them.”

I brought three large boxes and filled one of the boxes with canned goods, soap and other toiletries. I encouraged my boys to go through toys and donate some of their less favorite things.

The boy placed the toys they had chosen to donate into one of the boxes while I filled the third box with clothes. Meghan walked up with Lucy, her worn, faded, much-loved rag doll and hugged tightly to her chest. She paused in front of the box, gave her a final kiss, then laid her gently on top of the other toys. “Oh, honey,” I said. “You don’t have to give Lucy. You love her so much.”

Meghan said with held-back tears: “Lucy makes me happy, Mommy. Maybe she’ll make that reefs. By 2040, a third of the world's reefs could die because of harm caused by humans.

People can do a lot to save coral reefs. Recycling trash and saving water make less waste that goes into the sea. Traveling by bus or bike lowers air pollution, which may lead to global warming. Picking up litter on the beach also keeps the water clean.

If everyone takes these steps, change is possible. Healthy coral reefs mean a healthy ocean and a healthy Earth!

51. From the passage we can learn that _____.

- A. small animals can be the food for corals    B. in fact coral reefs are living animals
C. coral reefs grow in deep and warm water    D. only a small part of coral reefs is not alive

52. The underlined word them refers to _____.

- A. many animals                      B. rain forests                      C. long beaches                      D. coral reefs

53. According to the passage, we should _____ to protect the reefs.

- A. stop fishermen from fishing in the sea    B. make less air pollution to the earth
C. prevent the storms and the large waves    D. plant more algae on the reefs

54. The author's opinion is that _____.

- A. a quarter of sea life gets help from coral reefs
B. a healthy ocean brings healthy coral reefs
C. not all the corals are in the same shape
D. too many buses cause air pollution

55. The author writes the passage mainly to call on more people to _____.

- A. visit the coral reefs before they disappear completely
B. grow more corals in the sea to make the earth healthy
C. sell the food and medicine which come from coral reefs
D. protect the environment and the earth to save the reefs

第二节: Desmond, Sally, Russell, Julie, Marcia 正计划买一辆汽车。请阅读第 56 至 60 题中他们的购买要求, 从 A 至 F 的六张图片中选取符合描述的选项。其中有一项是多余选项。

56. Desmond is a young and promising athlete. Having won a champion in an important international game, he decides to buy a car to develop a brighter future. Of course, the car must be fast and fit for him, a sportsman. He never cares about money.

57. Sally is a bank clerk and she needs a small car as an everyday vehicle. As she pays much attention to the environment protection, she would like to buy a simple car. Also she hopes that it won't take too much parking room.

58. Russell used to work as a teacher in America. He is going to marry a Hangzhou girl in September this year. He is thinking of buying a new car in China as a wedding present. As he is planning to live in China, he would like to buy a car made in the US.

59. Julie is 60 years old. Her daughter married a clerk. They can earn $40,000 a year. They respect her very much. Her son-in-law wants to buy her a car. The new car, as his mother-in-law has pointed out, shouldn't be a Japanese car, no more than $20,000.

60. Marcia is a busy housewife and a mother of three children. Every day she has to drive the kids to school and every weekend she does shopping in a far-away supermarket. She wants to buy a car which is big enough and run fast. Also, it is less than $30,000.
