A

Mike was a small boy, and he hated soap(肥皂)and water. Three or four times every day his mother said to him, “Mike, your hands are very dirty again. Go and wash them. ”But Mike never really washed them well. He only put his hands in the water for a few seconds(秒)and then took them out again.

Mike's uncle and aunt lived in another city. One day they came to stay with Mike's parents, and they brought their son, Ted, with them. Ted was one year younger than Mike, and he didn't like soap and water, either.

The boys sat with their parents for a few minutes, but then they went outside. When they were alone, Mike looked at Ted's hands and then said proudly(自豪地), “My hands are dirtier than yours!”

"Of course they are," Ted answered angrily. "You're a year older than I am."

School ended a little earlier today. We all went to the football field, and soon the game started. We were playing against No. 64 Middle School. It was a draw when we played against them last time. They were all very big and strong, and we felt a little afraid of them. Though we were neither very big nor very strong, we were a good team. We played together very well. But still we weren't sure we could beat them.

That's what we found. The other team didn't play together very well. One of their players was a big boy named Wu Yong. He thought he was “King of the match”, and he was really rather good. Early in the first half of the match he kicked a goal, but we soon got one ourselves. We were playing so well together that they couldn't get the ball. We kept passing it to each other, and they began to get angry. This didn't help them at all, and soon we kicked another goal. At the end of the first half we were winning 2-1 .

26. What was the result when we played against No. 64 Middle School last time?
A. We won the game. B. They won the game.
C. We beat them. D. Neither team won the game.
27. Mr. Hu told us to remember—TEAMWORK! That means he told us _____.
A. to help each other in work B. to play together very well
C. to learn from each other D. to work with friends

28.Wu Yong kicked goals in the whole game.

- A. one
- B. two
- C. three
- D. four

29.The team from No. 64 Middle School didn't win the game this time because _____.

- A. Wu Yong was a good player
- B. Wu Yong wasn't a good player
- C. they were a strong team
- D. they had no teamwork

30.From the story people can guess Mr. Hu was one of the _____.

- A. players
- B. friends
- C. P. E. teachers
- D. classmates
