There was a robbery near Jim's home one night. Jim was looking out of his bedroom window at the time. He saw the robber run out of a shop and then take off his mask. He saw his face.

Jim told his father what he'd seen. When the police came, Jim and his father went to talk to them. "I saw the robber," Jim told the police. "I can describe him. He was about fifty years old. He was bald. He had a big, red nose and thick lips(嘴唇). He had big ears. He was quite tall and thin. He had something wrong with his right leg."

“How do you know that?” one of the officers asked Jim.

“He limped(跛行),” Jim said. “What was he wearing?” the other officer asked. “He was wearing black jeans and a shirt,” Jim said. “His mask was a lady’s stocking(袜子). His shoes were white sports shoes.”

“You are a very observant(观察力敏锐的) boy,” the police officer said. “Well done! Now we can send out a description of the robber.”

The police did it and the next day they caught him. They put him in a line with some other men. They asked Jim to point him out. Jim did it easily. The police arrested the man and charged him with robbery.
