Dear Mum,

I'm having a great time in Hong Kong, although I have to be honest and say that I prefer Shanghai. Still, it's a great place to visit and I'm lucky to be here for my six-month English course. My homestay is an English family. They are friendly to me. We are getting on well with each other. By the way, my host family will take me to a film festival next weekend.

Recently I have made rapid progress in my speaking and listening skills. My host family also teaches me something about English culture.

In general, I'm having a good time, but I miss you very much.

Yours,
Li Feng

We spent a few days in Paris last week. We visit the famous city quite regularly. After all, it only takes three hours from London to Paris. It's always a pleasure to visit places we really like, exploring areas we've never been to.

The only unlucky thing this time was the weather. As soon as we got there the temperature reached almost 35 degrees (which lasted until we left). It was so hot that Matthew just couldn't stand it — for him, it wasn't the most enjoyable trip. I felt sorry for him because every time we go there he has to put up with (忍受) my endless shopping spree (狂欢)...

Because of the heat, we ended up just having lots of ice-cream and drinks most of the time, although we managed to pay a few visits to the new Herme shop on rue de Vaugirard at least. It's not as busy as the shop on rue Bonaparte so you can choose whatever you like without worrying about a queue behind you! I really enjoyed it's bread this time as well as the cakes. And I must say that his Croissant aux Amandes and Bostock were simply the best I've ever had.

- (C) 36. Which of the following is TRUE according to the first paragraph?
 A. It was the first time for the writer to go to Paris.
 B. It was a long way from London to Paris.
 C. The writer lives in London.
 D. The writer only likes to go to places she has never been to.

 A. 享受 B. 忍受 C. 站立 D. 位于

- (A) 38. What can you know about Matthew from the second paragraph?
 A. He doesn't like shopping.
 B. He doesn't like travelling.
 C. He is one of the writer's relatives.
 D. He isn't a good husband.

【解析】根据第三段中的“...because every time we go there he has to put up with (忍受) my endless shopping spree (狂欢)...”可知选A。

- (B) 39. The shops on rue Bonaparte _____.

【解析】根据第一段的最后一句“...It's always a pleasure to visit places we really like, ...”及文章内容可知选D。

C

The homestay (寄宿家庭) provides English language students with the good chance to speak English outside the classroom and the experience of being part of an American home.

◆What to Expect

The host will provide places to live and meals. Rooms will be cleaned every day. And the host is there to offer help and advice on your physical and mental (精神的) health.

◆Living Area

Host families are mainly in Zones 2, 3 and 4. Most hosts don't live in Zone 1 because much of central New York is trading centre. Zones 3 and 4 often offer larger houses in uncrowded areas. But it's very convenient to travel to the centre of New York by subway.

◆Meal Plans

It's important to know that few American families still provide a traditional cooked breakfast. Your breakfast mainly includes fruit juice, bread and coffee. Cheese, fruit and cold meat are not part of the breakfast. Dinners are usually made up of meat or fish with vegetables followed by dessert, fruit and coffee.

◆Friends

If you wish to invite a friend to visit you, you must ask your host for permission (许可) first, because some families feel uncomfortable when there are strangers at their home.

【解析】根据第三段第二句“Most hosts don't live in Zone 1 because much of central New York is trading center.”可知选A。

- (D) 44. Which of the following statements is NOT true according to the passage?
 A. The hosts will care for your physical and mental health.
 B. Few American families offer the traditional cooked breakfast.
 C. You can't invite any friends to the house without asking the host.
 D. Most of the rooms in Zone 4 are smaller than those in Zone 2.

【解析】根据第三段的第三句“Zones 3 and 4 often offer larger houses in uncrowded areas.”可知,3区和4区的房子更大,因此D项是错误的。

 C. English learners who want to live in American homes
 D. foreigners hoping to study American culture
