Mosquitoes(蚊子)can be seen everywhere all over the world, especially in summer. And there are more than 2,500 kinds of them.

No one likes the mosquito, but the mosquito may like you. She thinks your blood is delicious. She? Yes, she. It's true that the male(雄性)mosquito doesn't bite(咬)and only the female mosquito bites because she needs blood(血液)to lay eggs. She is always looking for things or people she wants to bite. If she likes what she finds, she will bite. But if she doesn't like your blood, she will turn to someone else for more delicious blood. Next time a mosquito bites you, just remember you're different from others.

If the mosquito likes you, she will land on your body without letting you know. She bites you so quickly and quietly that you may feel nothing. After she bites, you will have an itch(痒)on your body because she puts something from her mouth together with your blood. By the time the itch begins, she has flown away.

And then what happens? Well, after her delicious dinner, it's dark. The mosquito feels tired. She just wants to find a place to have a good rest. There, on a leaf or a wall, she begins to lay eggs, hundreds of eggs.

61. Mosquitoes can be seen everywhere all over the world, especially in spring.

62. Male mosquitoes always bite people.
63. If the mosquito likes you, she will land on your body without letting you know.
64. After the bite, you will have an itch on your body.

Many students ask for advice about improving their English. There are three basic questions.

The first question is about real English. Li Hao from Hubei wrote, "I enjoy watching English films and listening to real English songs. But it takes a long time. What do you think?"

This is a great way to learn English! Talk about the film or song with your friends, and guess the meaning of the new words. Just enjoy yourself!

The second question is about speaking. Sam, from Suzhou wrote, "Our school has a foreign teacher. But I'm shy and can't speak to her. What should I do?"

When I visit China, lots of people in the street say, "Hello! How are you? Where are you from? Do you like China?" These are good questions to start a conversation. Many people are shy when they speak English, so before you begin, take a deep breath and smile! Smiling always helps.

The third question is about vocabulary. Olive, from Anhui wrote, "I want to remember all the new words. I wrote them down, but I forget them quickly. What should I do?"

Try to remember eight or nine words a day. Write them on pieces of paper and place them in your bedroom. Say the words when you see them, and change them every day. And when you're shopping, how about counting the English words, or saying the English names for everything you see?

How to 6 your English
Real	➤ Watching films and listening to songs.
English	➤ Guessing the 7 of the new words.
8	➤ Greeting to others.
English	➤ Overcoming (克服) your 9
Vocabulary	➤ Keeping changing the new words every day.
	➤ 10 the words everywhere and whenever.
