六、阅读理解。(20分)

(A) 根据短文内容,判断下列句子是否正确,正确画“T”,错误画“F”。

Mike was a small boy. He hated (讨厌) soap (香皂) and water. His mother said to him three or four times every day, "Mike, your hands are very dirty again. Go and wash them." But Mike never really washed them well. He only put his hands in the water for a few seconds (秒) and then took out again.

Mike's uncle and aunt lived in another (另一个) city. One day they came to stay with Mike's parents, and they brought their small son, Jack. Jack was one year younger than Mike, and he didn't like soap or wash, either. The boy sat with their parents for a few minutes, then he went outside with Mike. When the two boys were alone (单独的), Mike looked at Jack's hands and said loudly, "My hands are dirtier than yours!" "Of course they are", Jack answered angrily, "You're one year older than I am!"

() 1. Mike didn't like washing.

() 2. Mike washed his dirty hands carefully (仔细地).

- () 3. Mike and Jack lived in the same city.
- () 4. Mike is one year older than Jack.
- () 5. Jack liked soap and water and his hands always keep clean.

(B) 阅读短文, 选择正确答案。

My name is Wang Li. I'm learning English in the U. K.. My new school and Chinese school are different. In the U. K., the children sit around tables in a circle. Everyone can see each other. If they want to say something or ask questions, they can stand up freely(自由的). In China, we often sit in rows(排). Before we want to say something or ask questions, we need to put up our hands first. In the U. K., they begin school at 7:30 and it finishes at 3:30 in the afternoon. In China, the students do morning exercise in the morning. We begin school at 8:00 and finish at 4:00.

School is fun in the U. K.. But I miss my Chinese school.

- () 1. Are the schools in China and in the U. K. the same?
- A. Yes, they are. B. No, they aren't. C. I don't know.
- () 2. How do the children in the U. K. sit in class?
- A. In rows. B. Sit on the tables. C. In a circle.
- () 3. In the U. K., if a student wants to say something, what can he do?
- A. Stand up to say freely.
- B. Put up his hand first, then stand up to say.
- C. Ask some questions.
- () 4. What do the students do in the morning in China?
- A. Play ping-pong.
- B. Sing songs.
- C. Do morning exercise.
- () 5. Which(哪个) school begins early?
- A. The schools in China.
- B. The schools in the U. K..
- C. Their schools begin at the same time.
