Mrs Smith is a 50-year-old woman. She lives in a small village in the US. She doesn't like kids. But she loves dogs. She has many dogs. She makes food for the dogs. She takes a walk with the dogs every day. She is like a mother to the dogs. She has many black dogs and white dogs. She has big dogs and small dogs. So many kids like to come to her home. They come to play with the dogs. And many other dogs come to the old woman's home, too. So she has too many dogs. The old woman can't feed (喂) them all. "The kids love my dogs," she thinks. So she gives every kid a dog. Then she is happy. The kids are happy. And the dogs are happy, too. Because every dog has a new home now.
