Do you always have breakfast? Having a good breakfast is important in the morning.

Your breakfast should be rich in plenty of good food. One good breakfast should be bread, an egg, milk and fruit. On a cold day, a cup of hot drink is a good idea.

You can easily understand why. You have eaten nothing for about twelve hours until breakfast. If you do more morning activities, your body will need more energy. A good breakfast helps you to smile more easily. Your whole day will be more fun after enjoying a good breakfast. It helps you to be more friendly and study better. All in all, having a good breakfast is important.

I can see a boy and his mother in the picture. The boy is doing housework, but his mother thinks he should do his homework instead of housework. She thinks the only important thing is studying as a student.

I think it's necessary for children to do some housework in daily life. First, our parents are very busy and hard-working, and they may feel very tired when they get home. If we can help them with some housework, they may have a little time to get relaxed. Second, we can learn some skills from doing housework, which is necessary for our life. Third, we can talk with our parents when we do housework. This makes our relationship closer. All in all, it is important for children to help with some housework.
