Have you ever felt something fly quickly in Grade Nine? Certainly,that is the time. Once you let it 21 ,you'll never get it back. The time is always going forward, 22 can stop it. Suddenly one year has passed already. Time seems to be so cruel that sometimes you can't get one more second you want. A serious 23 you probably didn't ask yourself often is "Where has the time gone?"

As you get older, it seems that time moves 24. What takes your time? Take a look at what you do each day and ask 25, “Why am I doing so?” and “Should I be like this?” The answers are whether you are busy doing the things which are really important to you. Spending much time playing computer games 26 taking much time to stay with the neighbor girl is OK? It is wise 27 you to make good use of the time.

Time is 28 like a piece of land. If you grow your hopes there and work hard on them, you can get much more valuable experience and feelings. There are many people 29 are achieving amazing results in twenty-four hours as their hearts beat every day. However, time can wait for nobody. So my dear students, save your time. One today is 30 two tomorrows. Great future is waiting for you.

Westerners think that the education ways in many Chinese families are hard to understand. Here are some examples.

Many children in China are looked after by their grandfathers and grandmothers because their parents are busy. But children need to stay and communicate with their parents.

Parents pay no attention to the rights(权利) of children. Parents should knock at the door before they go into the room of their children. ①在孩子们同意之前,父母们不应该动他们的东西。Parents should communicate with children and respect the rights and decisions of them. Children who are not respected also do not know how to respect others.

Parents often compare their children with others. Parents often say, "You see somebody else is studying hard, what good grades they have, and what prizes they get." This is the worst thing. It will only bring the child much harm and pain.

②Many children are made to do what their parents expect though they do not like it. For example, parents ask their children to learn to play the piano or go abroad. It should be decided by children themselves.

The more hard-working, the better. Many parents think school performance is everything. In fact, the integrated(综合) ability is so important that it will affect children all their lives.

56. Is it easy for westerners to understand the education ways in many Chinese families?

57. What is the worst thing for parents to treat their children?
