Most people like to watch TV. Watching TV is one of the most important activities of the day. TV brings the outside closer to people's homes. Some people say the world is small than before ---- because of TV.

What's going on in other countries? How do people live in places far away? Is there a good sports game somewhere? What's life in the deepest part of the sea?

If you want to answer these and other kinds of questions, just turn on the TV. Turn it on and watch. You can see a lot and learn a lot. Of course, people can also learn through reading or listening to the radio. But with TV they can learn better and more easily. Why? Because they can hear and watch, too.

TV helps to open our eyes. TV also helps to open our minds. TV often gives us new ideas. We learn newer and better way of doing something.

45. Some people say the world is smaller than before because _____.

C

This passage gives some advice on how to be healthy. It talks about good habits and bad habits.

Early to bed, early to rise.

Makes a man healthy, wealthy and wise.

This is an old English saying. It means that we must go to bed early and get up early in the morning. If we do, we shall be healthy. We shall also be rich and clever.

Is this true? Perhaps it is. The body must have enough sleep. Children of your age need ten hours' sleep every night. If you do not go to bed early, you cannot have enough sleep. Then you cannot think properly(适当地) and you can not do your work properly. You will not be wise and you may not become wealthy (rich)!

Some people go to bed late at night and get up late in the morning. This is not good for them. We must sleep at night and get up when it is dark. The desk helps us to sleep properly. When the daytime comes, we must get up. This is the time for exercise. If the body is not used, it becomes weak. Exercise keeps it strong.

Exercise helps the blood (血) to move around inside the body. This is very important. Blood takes food to all parts of our bodies. The brains in our heads also need blood. We think with our brains. If we keep our bodies healthy, and take exercise, we can think better.

Our bodies also need air to breathe. Without air we die. Get up early in the morning and we can have plenty of clean, fresh air. That will keep us healthy and happy.

I've loved my mother's desk, since I was just tall enough to see the above the top of it. As mother sat doing letters. Standing by her chair, looking at the ink bottle, pens, and white paper, I decided that the act of writing must be the most wonderful thing in the world.

Years later, during her final illness, mother kept different things for my sister and brother. "But the desk," she'd said again,"is for Elizabeth."

I never saw her angry, never saw her cry. I knew she loved me. She showed it in action. But as a young girl, I wanted heart-to-heart talks between mother and daughter.

They never happened. And a gulf(分歧) opened between us. I was "too emotional(易动感情的)". But she lives

“one the surface（表面）”。

As tears passed, I had my own family, I loved my mother and thanked her for our happy family. I wrote to her in careful words and asked her to let me know in any way she chose that she did forgive(原谅) me.

I posted the letter and waited for her answer. None came.

My hope turned to disappointed, then little interest and, finally, peace—it seemed that nothing happened. I couldn't be sure that the letter had even got to mother. I only knew that I had written it, and I could stop trying to make her into someone she was not.

Now the present of her desk told me, as she'd never been able to, that she was pleased that writing was my chosen work. I cleaned the desk carefully and found some papers inside--- a photo of my father and a one- page letter, folded（折叠） many times.

Give me an answer, my letter asks, in any way you choose, mother, you always chose the act that speaks louder than words.
