One possible version:

Yesterday afternoon, I went home after school. Father happened to get home from work. I wanted to help my father to sweep the floor, because I thought he was too tired after a day's work, but he said, "You needn't do that. Do some reading!" Later when I was watching TV, my mother turned off the TV, and said angrily, "You mustn't watch TV. Go to study!"

I wonder if I should spend all the time on my study. There are many other things for me to learn, too! Is learning all my life?
