第二节 短文理解 阅读下列短文，从每题所给的 A、B、C 三个选项中，选出最佳选项回答问题或完成句子。（共 20 小题，计 40 分）

A

Sometimes people come into your life and you know at once that they are sure to be there. They serve some kinds of purpose, teach you a lesson or help you find out who you are or who you want to become. You never know who these people may be: your classmate, neighbor, teacher, long-lost friends or even a real stranger. But you know that every moment they affect (影响) your life in some serious ways.

Sometimes things happen to you. They may seem terrible, painful and unfair at first. But later you realize that without getting over those difficulties, you would have never realized your further ability and strength. Everything happens for a reason and nothing happens by chance or with good or bad luck.

The people you meet affect your life and the success and failure (失败) you experience create who you are. Even the bad experiences can be learned from. In fact, they are probably the most poignant (心酸的) but the most important ones.

Enjoy every day even every moment, for you may never be able to experience it again. Talk to people you have never talked to before, and really listen to them. You should set your sights high, hold your head up, tell yourself you are a great one and believe in yourself.

You can make anything you wish. Create your own life and then go out and live it.

- 46.The people we meet_____.
- A. know where to find us

B.will change us in some ways

C. won't become our neighbor
47. From the passage, we know that bad things can make us_____.
- A. terribly meet bad luck

C. 痛苦的
- 49.Which of the following statements might the writer agree with?
- A. Never talk to strange people

B. Learn as much as we can each day

C. Get over difficulties painfully

50. Which is the best title for the passage?

A. Create Your Own Life B. Hold Your Head Up

C. People You Meet in Life

B

If you need some advice but don't have time or money for experts, an 11-year-old American kid may help you. Every Saturday, Ciro Ortiz spends about two hours at a subway station in New York. There is a sign in front of him that reads "Emotional Advice $2". Believe it or not, some people stop for help from the kid. They ask him about all kinds of things, from relationships to jobs. And the kid always does his best to help them find the answers to their problems. "I don't make much money," Ciro's dad, Adam, said. "One right Ciro Ortiz suddenly told to me an idea of making his own money. I trusted my son and the next day we went to the station to start working." To his surprise, Ciro did a good job on that day. Since then, Ciro Ortiz has become more and more popular. It seems that Ciro is very good at giving advice. But in fact, he used to be a very shy boy at school and students often laughed at him. At the beginning, Ciro was nervous and was not sure of himself. But after a few days, he said to his mother, "I've met so many wonderful people and made many friends."

C

Mike was always happy and always had something interesting to say. If someone asked him how he was doing, he would reply, "Couldn't be better!" He was really a carefree young man and never felt tired.

Mike used to say, "Each morning I wake up and say to myself, 'Mike, you have two choices today. You can choose to be happy or you can choose to be upset.' I choose to be happy. Each time something happens, I am always ready to learn a good lesson. I choose to learn from life."

I tried to understand what he said. Indeed life is all about choices. Every situation is a choice. The bottom line is: You're living your life and you make it either happy or sad.

Several years later I had a car accident and my legs were seriously injured. When I was lying on the ground, I remembered that I had two choices: I could choose to live or choose to die. I chose to live.

People like to say, "Choose the one you love and love the one you choose." Why not choose the one we love and live happily?

51. What was Mike like?

A. A happy young man. B. A hard-working man. C. An ugly man.

52. What does "Couldn't be better!" mean?

A. It's bad. B. It's very good. C. It isn't bad.

53. Which of the following is NOT true?

A. Mike tried to be happy every day. B. Mike chose to learn from life.

C. The writer was unhappy every day.

54. When the writer got hurt in a car accident, _____.

A. He loved the one people chose B. People loved the one he chose

C. He chose to live

55. Which can be the best title for the passage?

A. Life Is Difficult B. Life Is Different C. Life Is Full of Choices

People all have problems. If we don't deal with these problems, we can easily become unhappy. Worrying about our problems can affect how we do at school. It can also influence the way we behave with our families. So how do we deal with our problems? There are many ways and here is one of them.

Most of us have probably been angry with our friends, parents or teachers. Perhaps they said something you didn't like, or you felt they were unfair. Sometimes people can stay angry for years about a small problem. Time goes by, and good friendship may be lost.

When we are angry, however, we are usually the ones affected. Perhaps we have seen young children playing together. Sometimes they have disagreements, and decide not to talk to each other. However, this usually does not last for long. This is an important lesson for us to learn.

56. What is the writer?

A. A shopkeeper B. A doctor C. A student

57. What will happen if people stay angry for long according to the text?
A. They feel unfair B. They may get sick C. Good friendship may be lost
58. Children decide not to talk to each other probably because _____.
A. they become unhappy
B. they have different ideas
C. they worry about a small problem
59. From the passage, we know an important lessons for us is _____.
A. playing together B. learning to forget C. staying angry
60. What is the main idea of the passage ?
A. How to deal with problems
B. How to do at school.
C. How to behave with families.
