There is an old saying "A hero is known in the time of misfortune (时势造英雄)". Zhong Nanshan is a hero like this. All the Chinese respect him. Zhong was born into a family of doctors in 1936. He studied medicine at Beijing University. In 1971, he began to work in Guangzhou. When he was forty-three years old, he got the chance to study in England. After Zhong returned, he developed into an excellent doctor in breathing problems.

Zhong became a well-known doctor in China in 2003, when SARS broke out. Zhong let the most severely (严重地) sick patients stay in his hospital. He studied the disease and finally found a way to treat SARS. In December, 2019, a terrible disease called COVID-19 (2019 冠状病毒) broke out suddenly in Wuhan, Hubei Province. It spread fast. Zhong went there at once. He and other experts advised the local government to take some practical action to stop COVID-19 from spreading, such as separating the city from the outside, asking people to stay at home, building some special hospitals and so on. Day by day, the situation takes a turn for the better.

61. When did Zhong Nanshan go to study in England?
A. In 1970. B. In 1975. C. In 1979. D. In 1982.
62. Zhong Nanshan is an expert in _____.
A. breathing problems B. heart troubles
C. eye disease D. children's disease expert group

Recently, all kinds of dispensers (自动售货机) have been appearing around France. Instead of selling sweet treats or drinks, however, they sell short stories. They are created by Short Edition. These machines promise to help pass the time, whether you're waiting at the airport, at the train station, or on a trying trip to the mall. The dispensers print out short stories for customers. To use the amazing inventions, simply choose your reading time: 1 minute, 3 minutes, or 5 minutes. Then, the machine will surprise you with a randomly-selected (任意选择的) short story to pass your time and make waiting around a bit more enjoyable. The "Short Story Dispenser" first appeared at an airport in Paris last year. Since then, the popular machines have been put in public places across the country. If you'd like to learn more about these machines, check out the Short Edition website.

66. People can buy drinks from the dispensers created by Short Edition.
67. You can buy a 30-minute story on the machine.
68. The Short Story Dispenser has been around for several years in Paris.
69. You can find more information about the machines on the Short Edition website.
70. The dispensers print out short stories for customers to help them pass the time.
