As we know, everyone can make mistakes, but don’t worry about it. The following is what we should do when we make mistakes.

Firstly, just admit it. Don't think that our mistakes are caused by others. Be brave and face the fact that we have made the mistakes. Don't blame other people, and don't cheat ourselves, either.

Secondly, solve it at once. In order to stop the problem from getting worse, we should act quickly to solve it. If we don't act and deal with the problem quickly, it'll only make us feel more stressed.

Thirdly, realize that making mistakes is the best way to learn. Those who have made the most mistakes can get an A, for they are the ones who have learned the most. The more we learn from our mistakes, the cleverer we are.

And lastly, think about what we can learn from our mistakes. What caused us to make the mistake? How can we avoid making the same mistake in the future? When we act with a method to get a good result, do it that way next time.

Judge the following sentences true(T) or false (F) according to the passage.

- () 51. Be brave and face the fact that we have made the mistakes.
- () 52. Blame other people and cheat ourselves when we make mistakes.
- () 53. We should solve the problem quickly in order to make us feel more stressed.
- () 54. The more we learn from our mistakes, the cleverer we are.

Reading is fun. When you read, would you like a paper or an e-book? Some people choose e-books, some love paper books, and others prefer reading both.

Li Ming, a university professor, is busy doing some research. So he is often on business. When he is at the airport or on the train, he especially loves reading e-books. He also likes reading paper books in the library for the research work. Besides, he enjoys the smell of the paper books.

What's more, Li Ming would like to read with his family. There is a reading time from 8:00 to 9:00 each Friday evening at home. Everyone reads and shares what they learn from the books. One Friday evening, Grandma took out an old paper book and said to her grandson, “Li Ming, this is the first book your grandpa gave me. There is his name on the front page. Whenever I read it, I can get something new from his notes. And I can still remember the happy life we lived together.” Li Ming said, “But I enjoy reading e-books. E-books need no paper. Many forests will be saved.” Grandma advised, “Don't read for a long time, or your eyes will get sore.”

Different people have different ideas about e-books and paper books. No one knows whether e-books can replace(代替) paper books or not. Somehow, books are our friends. No matter which kind of books you choose to read, you can learn more about the world through them.

Answer the following questions according to what you read.

71. Do all the people prefer reading e-books?

72. When is the reading time in Li Ming's family?

73. What does the old paper book mean to Grandma?

74. What will happen if we read e-books for a long time?

75. Do you think e-books will replace paper books in your life?
