As a 28-year-old man, I was sitting on my mom's sofa and waiting for the pain in my back to ease(减轻). A lack(缺少) of work and 1 forced my wife, our baby boy and me to 2 with my parents. We slept in my old bedroom, and I was feeling down.

Thankfully, I had one new job: helping my son learn 3 to walk. Anytime he took a few 4, however, he would fall down and cry. I had to bend(弯腰) over and hold his 5 while he walked along. But my back didn't deal with it too 6.

As I sat there with my eyes 7, I suddenly heard my mother said in a low 8, "Joe, look!" I opened my 9 and watched my son take the coffee table, pull himself up and smile. Next with a giggle(咯咯笑), he started walking around it, 10 his hands on it for balance(平衡). Finally, when he reached the end of it, he 11 two big steps and made it to the wall. Then he started walking down the hall 12 his hands balancing on the wall. I laughed and cheered. Suddenly, being unemployed(失业的) wasn't so bad, because my boy had 13 to walk.

Learning to love in this world is a lot like first learning to walk. We often fall and cry. However, 14 we try again, we will find our own feet and know how to love. Don't be afraid to 15. Don't be afraid to fall.

Dear Brett

Thanks for your email. You do lots of sports at school in Canada. I'd love to play ice hockey one day.

We do lots of sports at our school too. We've got a swimming pool at school and our class go swimming every Wednesday. We also play tennis, volleyball and football, but football in Australia is different to soccer. You can touch the ball with your hands!

There are lots of after-school sports clubs in Australia too. I go to a surfing club after school on Tuesdays and Thursdays. We go to the beach and learn how to surf. It's great fun! Can you surf in your country?

Write soon

Rob

From Cindy's diary

Today is the 14th of November and it's my birthday. I got this diary as a present from my mom, and this is my first piece of writing in it. It's funny to think of all these blank pages which will be full of the things that happen to me in the next few years. I wonder what I will write on them.

First of all, I'll write down who I am. My name is Cindy Carter and I am sixteen years old. I go to school at Kennedy High School. My best friend at school is Anna. She is the same age as me (actually, two days older!) and we always hang out together. She's really good at drawing and playing music. I'm terrible at drawing.

My favorite subject is history. I like geography, too, but history is the best. Mom says it was always her favorite subject too, so I guess it's inherited. My favorite color is red, my favorite animal is a horse, and my favorite food is chocolate.

We have a great history teacher at school. His name is Mr. Nelson and he makes all the classes very interesting. When we learn about a famous person from the past, we have to do some research and then pretend we are interviewing the dead person.

Some of my other birthday presents were a new CD, two T-shirts, a pair of shoes, a book, and some money from Grandma. I don't know what I'm going to spend the money on yet. My dad says I should save it, but Grandma says I should enjoy it. I figure she gave me the money, so I'll take her advice.

Well, that's about enough for my first ever diary day. I suppose that when I'm old and grey, I'll read this book and try to remember it all. It will probably be very funny. I wonder if all the same things will still be my favorites then.

If you ever see a man in a suit sitting on top of a packed car with a teddy bear, don't be surprised. He is Mr. Bean, everyone's favorite British comedy character, who just celebrated his 25th birthday earlier this month. On that day, Atkinson, who played Mr. Bean, was dressed up as this famous character again and brought British people back to the funny old times. Though Atkinson is 60 years old now, he looks just like the old Mr. Bean.

Mr. Bean first starred in a sitcom in 1990, and since then the funny guy has been a hit around the world. He is such a cultural idol that he even appeared at the 2012 London Olympics Opening Ceremony.

Mr. Bean is described as "a child in a grown man's body". He is clumsy(笨拙的) and hopeless in society. He causes trouble everywhere he goes, and the British think this is very funny.

He goes to the beach and tries to take off his trousers without a man standing close by seeing him. It turns out the man can't see at all.

For many Britons, making fun of yourself is a way of showing strength(长处) of character. People say Mr. Bean shows that Britons are good at laughing at themselves. It is a culture where mocking(嘲讽) is part of everyday life. If you fall over while walking with a British friend, instead of worrying about you, your friend may say, "Have a nice trip!"

French journalist Agnès Poirier thinks that Mr. Bean speaks for "Britishness" to people around the world. "He is suffering all the time, making a fool out of himself and mocking others. He seems quite British because he's ill at ease(局促不安的)—but extremely funny as well."

23. In the sitcom, Mr. Bean appears to be _____.
A. a trouble-maker B. a boring person
C. a blind man D. a serious gentleman
24. How long has the sitcom "Mr. Bean" been on TV?
A. For over 28 years. B. Since 2012.
C. For 60 years. D. Since 2000.
25. What does the underlined phrase "a child in a grown man's body" mean?
A. Mr. Bean doesn't want to grow up.
B. Mr. Bean always brings a child with him.
C. Mr. Bean behaves like a child though he's a grown-up.
D. Mr. Bean can get on well with any child though he's a grown-up.

26. According to Agnès Poirier, which of the following is NOT of “Britishness”?

- A. A person who is clumsy but still mocks other people.
- B. A person who is rich but laughs at poor people.
- C. A person who always makes fun of himself.
- D. A person whose life is not easy but still finds the joy in life.

It all started at the beginning of the fifth grade. At first, Carmen wasn't really sure what was happening. In class, she had to squint(眯着眼看) her eyes to see the blackboard clearly. She had to do the same thing when she read street signs, or when she watched a movie.

It wasn't long before Carmen found herself squinting all the time, but she didn't want anyone to know that. One day, she asked for a desk closer to the blackboard. Her teacher asked if she had trouble seeing the blackboard. Carmen shook her head, but she knew she couldn't pretend(假装) much longer.

At home, she had to sit closer and closer to the television while watching her favorite shows. Her mother noticed that and said, “Tomorrow I'm calling the eye doctor to get an appointment for you.” Three days later, Carmen had new glasses and the doctor told her to wear them all the time. Carmen frowned in the car the whole way home.

“All of the kids at school will think I'm a nerd,” she said.

“You look just as beautiful with those glasses on as you do without them,” her mother smiled and said. But Carmen didn't believe her.

The next day, Carmen kept the glasses in her pocket as she walked into the schoolyard. She avoided her friends and stood alone, feeling unhappy. Suddenly, she heard her friend Tracy shout. Carmen ran over. “What's wrong?” she asked.

“My silver ring is gone!” Tracy cried. “It's very special and I can't lose it!”

Carmen could tell that Tracy was very sad. They all looked for the ring in the grassy area of the playground. ▲ She took the glasses out and put them on. She caught her breath. Everything looked so different! So clear! She looked down at the ground and a glimmer of silver caught her eyes. It was the ring.

“Here it is. I've found it!” She handed it to Tracy.

“Thanks, Carmen. I never thought we'd find it,” Tracy paused. “Hey, I didn't know you wore glasses. They look great!”

Carmen had forgotten that she was wearing the new glasses. “Thanks,” she replied shyly. As they walked back towards the school building, two more girls from her class complimented(赞美) her on her glasses. Carmen smiled. “Maybe wearing glasses won't be so bad after all,” she thought.

27. Before Carmen got glasses she _____.

- A. found Tracy's missing ring
- B. thought having glasses wouldn't be so bad
- C. sat far away from the television
- D. wasn't able to see the blackboard clearly

28. The word “nerd” might mean _____ in the passage.

- A. a person who likes games
- B. a person who looks stupid
- C. a person who is not brave
- D. a person who is not honest

29. Which one of the following can be put in ▲ ?

- A. But Carmen explained the difficult situation she faced.
- B. It was necessary for Carmen to see the notes on the blackboard.
- C. Carmen realised that she could search better if she could see better.
- D. Carmen described how important it was to take care of her eyes.

30. According to the story, what do you think Carmen will probably do next?

- A. She will wear her glasses all the time.
- B. She will keep her glasses in her pocket.
- C. She won't tell her friends that she needs to wear glasses.
- D. She will wear her glasses only when she is with her family.

三、任务型阅读(本题有 5 小题,每小题 1 分,共计 5 分)

下面是记者采访 Jorge Estrella 的部分内容。通过这次采访,我们可以更多地了解 Jorge Estrella 的工作。请阅读下面的对话,并根据要求完成相应任务。

Q: 31

A: I have always liked to write. When I was a kid in my primary school, I started to write stories. Some of them were published in my school newspaper.

Q: 32

A: When you write a storybook, you spend a lot of time alone. I want to have many chances to meet people and talk to them. That's why I write news, not books.

Q: 33

A: Some days are harder than others. On a hard day, many things happen. That means I have to write a lot of news stories. Sometimes I even miss lunch! But at the end of a hard day, I feel good about all of my work.

Q: 34

A: Sure. I am working on one right now. It's about some kids who think the city needs more soccer fields. They want to find a way to get more fields.

How to deal with pressure

As a junior middle school student, I had pressure from different parts of my life before. The most difficult thing I experienced was about the final tests at the end of last semester, and I was so nervous that I almost felt ill before them. Another problem came from my family when my parents made decisions for me without asking me. The last one was from my peers. We competed with each other in everything, such as whose math exercises could be done most quickly.

Luckily, I found useful solutions. First, I prepared well both mentally and physically for the exams, so I stopped worrying about them. Second, as for our parents, communication helped a lot. Finally, I tried to share among peers because doing things together is more important. After solving those problems, now I really enjoy my life better.
