Everyone has a family name. In China the family name is the first name, but in English-speaking countries (国家) the family name is the last name. Do you know how English people get their family names? For example: Some family names come from the places of their homes. A man lives on or near a hill, his family name may be Hill. In England, people's family's names may be Wood, lake, because they live near the wood or the lake. Some family names come from a person's job (职业). If a person is a cook, his family name may be Cook. And many people get their family names from their fathers' names. If you hear the name "Jackson", you can know that he is the son of Jack.
