Zhong Nanshan is a famous(出名的) Chinese doctor. He is kind and hard-working, he plays an important role in curing infectious disease(治疗传染病).

Zhong always told the truth. In 2003, a terrifying disease (可怕的疾病), SARS(非典型性肺炎) caused(导致) many people to be sick(患病的) and even to die in China. When some experts(专家) said chlamydia(衣原体) was the main cause(原因) of SARS, Zhong had a different idea. He thought chlamydia might be one cause of death, but not the only cause of SARS. Not long after that, he created an effective treatment method(有效的治疗方法) for SARS. Thanks to it, many patients(病人) became well.

Zhong, now 82, still sees patients at his hospital, he teaches young doctors, too. This year, a new type of pneumonia(新冠肺炎) broke out(爆发) and it made many Chinese become ill. At first, some experts(专家) thought the virus(病毒) couldn't spread(传播, 传染) from human (人, 人类) to human. But Zhong searched(研究) carefully, and found the truth is different. This has helped the government(政府) and doctors contain the outbreak(遏制疫情爆发).

Zhong Nanshan is a good doctor, we can learn a lot from him, to be hard-working and always tell the truth.

B). 书面表达(计 15 分)

I did a survey about reading after school each day in my class. I found that 28percent of the students spend less than one hour reading, 17percent read for one to two hours, and only 5percent read for over three hours. I was surprised that 50percent of them don't read at all.

I think most of the students need to spend more time reading, because reading opens our mind, makes us smarter and smarter, and makes our life colorful.

As a student, I think we should join reading clubs and take part in reading competitions to push us to read more.
