Dear Peter,

Thanks for your last e – mail. You asked me what my last Sunday was like. Now let me tell it to you.

As you know, our city is developing rapidly and it has changed a lot. However, there have been some small problems. So we organized a program called " Better city Better Life" last Sunday. Some volunteers of my classmates and from other schools took part in it. The activity began at 8 am and finished at 5pm. At first, we helped to clean up the streets with the cleaners. Then, we visited an old people's home. There we cleaned their rooms and talked with them. In the afternoon, we got to a food bank and helped to give out food to the homeless. Although we were tired at the end of the day, we felt excited because we could help to make our city better. And I really wish to take part in it next time.

Let's work hard together to make the world a better place to live in!

Yours
Li Hua
