To have a friend, you must learn to be one. You must learn to treat your friend the way you want your friend to treat you. Learning to be a good friend means learning three rules; be honest; be generous; be understanding.

Honesty is where a good friend starts. Friends must be able to trust one another. If you do not tell the truth, people usually find out. If a friend finds out that you haven't been honest, you may lose your friend's trust.

Being generous means sharing your ideas and feelings and it makes your friendship grow. By sharing, you help your friend know what is important to you. This can be important to friends.

Everyone needs understanding and help when meeting with problems. Something may go wrong at school. Talking about the problem can make it easier to solve. Turning to a friend can be the first step in solving the problem. So a friend must listen and understand. You must try to put yourself in your friend's place so you can understand the problem better.

C. getting help from the Internet D. asking for advice from your parents

25. What's the best title of the passage?

- A. Honesty is the Most Important Quality
B. Friendship means understanding
C. How to be a Friend
D. A friend in Need is a Friend Indeed

C

Benjamin and Zyleen Hewins, from London, decided to let their kids, Emiliana, six, and three-year-old Zach, go to “world school” after a family member died. That thing made them think about what they really wanted from their lives.

Selling everything to get the money to make them travel around the world, they were famous as the Flip Flop Family after putting their stories on the Internet.

“We knew that we wanted more out of life and could only get what we wanted by working hard,” Zyleen said. “But we didn't want to lose these precious years with our children because of work, so we had this idea.” Benjamin sold his van, motorbike and the family car, and the children sold their clothes and toys. But when they were excited about the idea, their family and friends didn’t think it was a good idea. “Most of them thought we were crazy (不理智的),” Benjamin said. “But after they knew our real thoughts, they all started to think about where to meet us along our trip. We were lucky to spend 10 weeks with our family and friends in different countries.”

One year ago, the family started their trip. They went to the first country, and then decided where to go from there. In one year, they went to 22 countries. Zach and Emiliana also saw many wonderful things and learned about different cultures (文化) and languages.

26. Why did the parents have the idea of traveling around the world?

- A. To remember the dead family member.
- B. To spend more time with their kids.
- C. To find what Zach and Emiliana wanted from their lives.
- D. To make their kids see more wonderful things.

27. What does the underlined word precious mean in Chinese?

- A. 传统的
- B. 寂寞的
- C. 宝贵的
- D. 焦虑的

28. What did the family do before they started their trip?

- A. They decided which countries they wanted to visit.
- B. They asked their family and friends to join them.
- C. They learned different languages by themselves.
- D. They made some money by selling their things.

29. What can we know from the passage?

- A. The kids learned something useful during the trip.
- B. Benjamin and Zyleen didn’t like to work.
- C. The family visited 22 countries with their friends.
- D. The parents wouldn’t let their children go back to school.

30. In which part of a newspaper can we read this passage?

I'm not saying that I am an exception of this, but it always amazes (使惊愕) me how people can spend so much time on their phones without 2 to others. Has it gone too far?

Recently, my smart phone broke down and I had to use a really old, basic phone just to keep in touch with my family and 3. I loved it. I loved being 4 from the Internet, and I really didn't mind not having updates (最新消息) about what my friends were doing. It allowed 5 to spend more time enjoying my time in London and watching the people 6 me and really see what was going on.

However, I knew that as soon as I got my smart phone back, I would be one of those 7 once again. Perhaps I should just go back to using the basic phone and forget I have ever got my smart phone back.

八、阅读表达

If you want to go to visit Shanghai Disneyland, you can learn something about it.

Shanghai Disneyland opened on June 16, 2016. It began selling tickets on March 28th through several ways: the official website, Alitrip website and the central phone. Its price is the lowest of all the Disney theme parks. So far, quite a lot of people have booked tickets.

The park is built in the 963—acre field and costs $ 5.5 billion. Almost 400 designers and engineers have taken part in the design work. The Disney castle in Shanghai is the tallest and largest one in the Disney family around the world.

When you visit Shanghai Disneyland, you can follow the advice.

Buy souvenirs (纪念品) in advance (提前). Disney is so popular that it is easy to find these souvenirs anywhere. It isn't necessary for you to buy them at Disneyland because they are too expensive there. You can save a lot of money in this way.

Eat breakfast before you arrive. You can save quite a bit of money by eating breakfast before you go to the park.

Take snacks with you. You can enjoy them in the picnic area. Because the snacks there are too expensive.

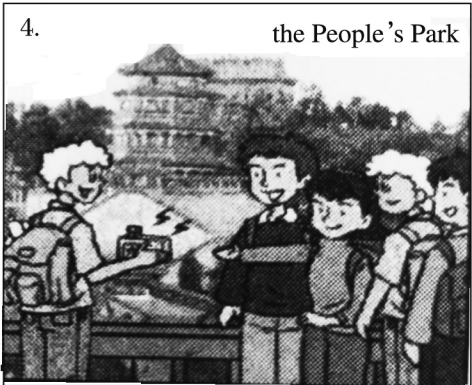

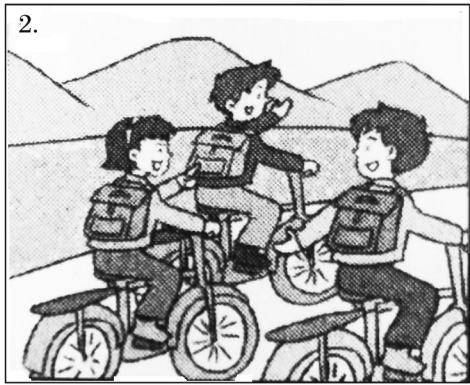

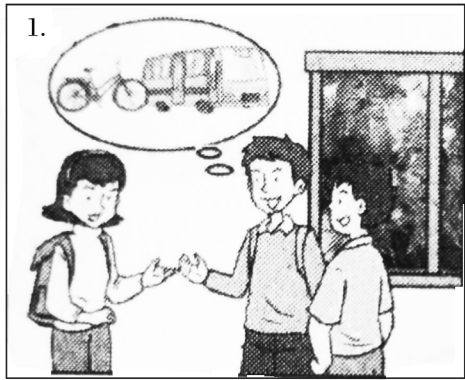

To save more money, you can plan your trip during the park's off-season (淡季). Lots of things, from airfares (飞机票价) to souvenirs, can be cheaper during these months.

- 1. When did Shanghai Disneyland open? (no more than 6 words)
- 2. How many pieces of advice are mentioned in this passage? (no more than 3 words)
- 3. Why isn't it necessary to buy souvenirs at Disneyland? (no more than 6 words)
- 4. 将文中划线的句子翻译成汉语。
