1. W: I like sending e-mails to my friends. I write to them once a week. How about you?

M: I write to my parents twice a week.

2. W: Of the four seasons, which do you like best?

M: Well, it's too cold in winter and too hot in summer. I like spring best. I feel most comfortable when the weather is warm and the trees turn green.

3. M: Last Saturday we had a busy day.

W: What did you do then, Mark?

M: I went to my aunt's house. I played with my cousin happily and watched cartoons for two hours. At night, I went to Andy's concert.

W: It was really a happy day. But I had to do my homework last Saturday.

4. M: Hi, Sally. Welcome back. How was your trip?

W: Great. It was nice to travel abroad for a few weeks.

M: What did you think of London?

W: I liked it better than I expected. It's very clean and it has got lots of trees. The problem is the bad bus services.

5. W: Excuse me, I want to complain about this book.

M: What's wrong?

W: I bought this book here yesterday. But when I read it, I found some pages was missing.

M: Oh, I am sorry about that. I will give you a new copy.
