Beijing has nearly a thousand bus routes(公交线路). Zhang Queming works on Line 387. But he knows the bus stops of over 800 bus routes. People often call him the "human GPS" of Beijing's bus routes.

A bus attendant should know nearby undergrounds, famous buildings and tourist sites(观光点) around its stops, but Zhang's knowledge covers the whole city. He remembers thousands of stops. If a passenger asks him for ways to any important place in Beijing, he will give help at once. Zhang's voice is always warm and clear. This always gives his passengers a sense of comfort and safety(安全).

Zhang often studies bus maps before working at the company. It becomes part of his life. He used his knowledge to write a book in 2006. The book made it easy for readers to find places in Beijing.

Now Zhang is working on a second edition(第二版) of his book. He will put more new information in it. He hopes that the book can also be an e-book, so readers can easily download it onto their cell phones(手机) and use it anywhere and anytime.

An old man was fishing near a river. A child came to see him fishing. The old man was really good at fishing and it didn't take him long to catch a full basket of fish. The old man saw that the child was very lovely, so he wanted to give her all of the fish. But the child didn't agree. The old man was surprised and asked, "Why don't you want the fish?" The child replied, "I want your fishing rod (竿)." The old man asked, "Why do you want the rod?"

"It doesn't take long to eat all the fish in the basket. But if I have the fishing rod, I can go fishing by myself and I won't be afraid of having no fish to eat."

Do you think the child is very smart? Wrong! If she doesn't know how to fish, she cannot have fish to eat. The fishing rod is useless to her. Fishing skills are the most important, not the fishing rod.
