四、阅读理解(共 15 小题, 计 30 分)

A

Topic: Should kids join talent shows?

Discussion:

The talent shows shouldn't set a limit(限制) on the age. If the parents want their kids to take part in talent shows, they should say "Yes".

—Ellie

Talent shows can help children become more confident(自信的). And no matter how young you are, you can have talents.

—Laura

I think it's wrong for kids to take part in big talent shows. They have other things, like schoolwork, to worry about. And they will be sad if they can't win.

—Robert

The judges(评判员) of the big talent shows are too strict. There should be Kids Have Got Talent. So they don't need to compete with adults(成年人).

—Jessica

七、阅读表达 (10 分)

It was a sunny and warm day. My classmates and I went hiking(远足) together in our free time. Although we all knew it was a long way to walk, we began our trip happily. We sang songs and talked with each other on the way. We felt happy and relaxed on such a fine day.

However, things didn't go as we think. About two hours later, however, we became so tired that we almost wanted to give up. Someone said we could take a bus, but we decided to reach the place by ourselves at last. It was hot and we were sweating(流汗). Each step seemed to become heavier and heavier, but no one stopped. We just walked and walked, heading for the place where we wanted to go.

When there was only 1,500 meters left, a pain was in my whole body. At that moment, I really wanted to stop. But my classmates encouraged(鼓励) me and gave me their help. At last, I reached the end. We couldn't help shouting and laughing excitedly. Then we had a good day there.

This hiking experience gave us a good chance to relax and taught us a lesson. If we want to do something, we shouldn't let the problems in our life stop us. With a brave heart and a strong will, we can surely do anything.

81. Whom did the writer go hiking in the free time?

82. How did they feel two hours later?

83. Why did the writer want to stop?

84. What's the advantages(好处) of this hiking experience in the writer's opinion (观点)?

85. What should we do when meeting problems in our life?
