A father and his son went to a kite-flying festival. The son was happy when he saw the sky full of colorful kites. He wanted to fly a kite, too. The father then 16 a kite for his son in the store.

The son started to fly the kite. 17, his kite was high up in the sky in a few minutes. Then, the son said, "Father, it seems that the string（线）is stopping the kites from flying higher. If we cut it, it will be 18 and fly higher. Can we cut it?" The father cut the string off of the reel（线轴）.

The kite started to go 19. This made the little boy happy.

But then, slowly, the kite started to 20. It finally fell to the ground. The son was 21 to see this. He asked his father, "Why did it fall down? I thought that the kite would fly higher 22 cutting the string."

The father explained, "The string was not stopping the kite from going higher, but was helping it stay in the sky. You helped the kite go up in the right 23 by using the string. But it can no longer support（支撑）the kite if you cut the string."

We may sometimes feel like there is 24 holding us back and stopping us from growing. But 25, it might be the thing that supports us the most.

III. 阅读理解（本题 15 小题，每小题 2 分，共 30 分）

A

根据短文内容，判断下面句子的正（T）误（F）。

Dear Mr. & Mrs. Miller,

This term, Mike could do better in self-control(自我控制) but he is not in the way we want him to. I think more family care will help him solve this problem.

Mike is very smart, but it is hard for him to do his homework for a long time. However, he seems to be better now. Mike is able to do his homework very well. He is good at spelling and can use the words correctly(正确地) in his homework. He can also work out the math problems quite easily. Mike is very interested in science. He enjoys reading books and writing reports in an interesting way.

I enjoy having Mike in my class. He is going to study in Grade Three next term. Miss King will be his teacher. I hope he can do better than before.

Sincerely,
Cindy Brown

- 26. This letter is for Mike's parents.
- 27. Mike's teacher says that his self-control is as good as expected.

The shortest answer as to why so many characters wear gloves is that in the age of black and white cartoons, it was difficult to make characters' round hands and their black bodies clear in a short time. Gloves were an easy way to make their hands stand out. In fact, Walt Disney might have been the first to put gloves on his characters in The Opry House, starring Mickey Mouse. Besides, Walt Disney once said that there was another reason. "We didn't want him to have mouse hands because he should be more human. So we gave him gloves. Five fingers seemed like too many on such a little figure (人物), so we took away one."

37. The underlined word “stand out” means _____ in Chinese.

38. How many reasons are mentioned(提及) in the passage?

39. Why does Mickey have four fingers?
