I was always busy and had too many things to do. Whenever my daughter made me change my plans, I thought to myself, "We don't have time for this." So the two words I always said to her were: 46.

The other day, the two of us rode to a 47 near our home. After shopping I bought her an ice cream, and she sat down at a table happily enjoying the ice cream in her hand. Suddenly a/an 48 look appeared on her face. "Do I have to eat it up in a hurry, Mum?"

I nearly cried when hearing this. The pains of a hurried life influenced (影响) my poor girl so deeply! As she looked at me waiting to know if she could 49 her time, I knew I had to make a 50. I thought of the times when I rushed (催促) my child through life and began 51 what was the really most important in life...

"You don't have to hurry, just enjoy it", I said gently. Her whole face brightened and her shoulders 52. We sat side by side talking about things that interested us. When she got to the last bite (一口), she held it out to me.

"I 53 the last bite for you, Mum" she said 54. As the icy taste put out my thirst, I understood that I just got the present of a lifetime. I gave my child a little time and in return, she gave me her last bite and reminded me that things taste sweeter and love is 55 to get when you stop rushing through life.

When I was in primary school, Miss Green told us a story in an English class. Through the story, she wanted to tell us that there is always a solution (解决方法) to every problem. I kept that in mind.

One day, when I returned home, I found that my father was unhappy. When I asked him why, he told me that he lost his watch when he was working in the garden. He had looked for it everywhere but couldn't find it. He had also asked my two elder brothers to help, but they failed too.

That watch was very important to my father because it was a gift from my late (已故的) grandfather. "Don't worry, Dad. I'll help you find it," I said. But my father didn't believe it. After all, they all had failed to find it. He said, "Well, if you find it, I'll give you 20 dollars." "OK, Just wait," I said and then went to the garden.

Suddenly, I thought of the story that Miss Green had told us. But how could I find the watch? I started thinking and thinking. Then I remembered that the watch ticked (发出滴答声). But the ticking was hard to hear. I decided not to look here and there as they did. Instead, I put my ear on the ground. And ten minutes later, I found the watch.

My father and brothers couldn't believe their eyes. They thought I was really lucky. But I shook my head, saying, "No. It wasn't good luck. I just thought before I took action (行动)."

There is always a solution to every problem. Just think before you take action.

56. Why was the watch important to the writer's father?

- A. Because it was very expensive. B. Because he had only one watch.
C. Because he had used it for many years. D. Because it was a gift from his late father.

57. How did the writer find the watch?

- A. By asking his brothers for help. B. By looking here and there.
C. By making some sound. D. By listening carefully.

58. What does the writer want to tell us in the passage?

- A. Think and find a solution to the problem. B. Help our family when they have problems.
C. Use the things we've learned. D. Listen carefully at times.

C

A long time ago, there was a seed and because he was only a seed, nobody noticed him. Thus, feeling inferior (低等的), the seed gave no importance to his existence (存在).

Then one day, a wind picked him up and threw him on an open field under the sun. Later, he was given rain.

Years later he saw a traveler sitting by his side. "Thank God for this. I really need some rest," he heard the traveler say.

"What are you talking about?" the seed quickly asked. He thought the man was making fun of him. No one ever spoke to him like that.

"Who just spoke?" the shocked man asked.

"It is me. A seed."

"A seed?" The man looked at the big tree. "Are you joking? You are not a seed. You are a big tree!"

"Really?"

"Yes! Why else do you think people come here?"

"What do they come here for?"

"To feel your shade (树荫)! Don't tell me you didn't know you had grown over time."

A moment passed before the traveler's words brought him pride. The seed thought and smiled for the first time in his life. The years of torture (折磨) by the sun and the rain finally helped him grow up.

"Oh! That means I'm not a little seed anymore! I was actually born to make people feel comfortable. Wow! That's great!"

62. The seed didn't realize the importance of his existence because _____.

A. nobody looked after him

B. he was thrown into the open air

C. he was such a small seed

D. he didn't believe in himself

63. The traveler sat by the seed's side to _____.

A. escape (避开) from the rain

B. thank God for offering him a tree

C. have a rest and enjoy the shade

D. talk with the big tree

64. The writer's purpose of writing the passage is to _____.

A. tell us that we should help each other

B. praise the seed for his strength

C. teach us not to laugh at others

D. tell us never to lose hope

65. Where does the passage most probably come from?

A. A history book.

B. A science book.

C. A storybook.

D. A novel.

根据短文内容, 按要求完成下列各题。

Keep Safe in a Car!

Cars can bring us lots of fun and convenience, but they could also bring us much danger. So we have to be very careful when we drive them or ride in them.

First, it's always a good idea to put on seat belt when you're in a car. Why? Think about this example: You put an egg on a skateboard and give it a push. If the skateboard hits a stone on its way or another skateboard hits yours, it will stop, but the egg won't—it will fly through the air, fall down to the ground and break. Again, think about what would happen if you tie the egg to the skateboard. When the skateboard hits a stone or another skateboard hits yours, the egg won't go flying—it will stay safely on the skateboard. Now you must know how important it is to put on your seat belt when you're in a car.

Air bags are also very important to car safety because sometimes a seat belt isn't enough. If the car goes really fast and runs into something, seat belts could even hurt the people who wear them. So most of the newest cars have air bags in front of and next to the seats. When the car hits something at a fast speed, its air bags will come out quickly—in less than one second to keep the people inside safe.
