书面表达

One Possible Version:

Dear Cindy,

I'm glad to know that you are coming to China. China is a country with a long history, so there are many customs here. Let me tell you some of them.

Firstly, you are supposed to shake hands when you meet someone for the first time. Secondly, when you eat meals with other people, it's rude to point at others with your chopsticks. And don't make any noises when you have your soup. Besides, if you are going to a party, you are supposed to arrive at the party on time, or a few minutes earlier. You are not supposed to give a clock to a friend as a present, because that means death in Chinese. What's more, when you eat out with friends, generally your friends and you should take turns to pay for the meals.

I hope that these tips are useful for you. Have a good time in China!

Best wishes!

Yours,
Li Shuo
