My name is Li Mei, a Chinese girl. I'm very proud to introduce the high-speed rail. It's the fastest train in the world. People call it one of China's new four inventions. Its total length has reached more than 35, 000 kilometers. The train is very clean, comfortable and quiet. Though it can run at the top speed of over 300 kilometers per hour, it's still the safest vehicle. When you walk into the high-speed rail station, you must find it's easy to get tickets through many ways, by telephone, by the Internet or on the self-service ticket machine. If you come to China, you'd better experience the fun of taking high-speed rail.
