A.

Last week a teenager in my community died in car accident after a drinks party. Can you give me some advice on how to talk to my sons about alcohol (酒). They're 7 and 11.

--Dan

You're a smart dad! The earlier you start to talk with your kids about alcohol, the better.

Start talking about alcohol early.

Kids who try alcohol before 15 are four times more likely to develop alcoholism than those who begin after 20. When there's an accident in your community, talk to your kids about it. "How terrible! It's dangerous for kids to drink alcohol and it's against the law (法律)."

Give your kids facts.

"But why are adults allowed to drink? They meet with accidents, too!" your sons might say.

"You're right, dear. That's why nobody should drink and then drive. And even for adults, alcohol does change the brain, but that change is temporary. When kids try alcohol, it actually changes the way their brains develop, so the change is long-lasting."

Keep communication open.

They might say, "A lot of kids try alcohol. Why do I have to wait?"

You can reply, "Some kids around you might drink and naturally you are curious (好奇的) about it. You can always tell me and ask me anything you want. I don't want you to drink now. When you are an adult, whether you drink is up to you. Right now, though, it is up to me to help you protect yourself."

--Melinda

- () 26. Which of the following is mentioned by Melinda?

D

- () 27. What does the underlined word "temporary" mean _____ in Chinese?

A. 暂时的 C. 隐性的 B. 不可逆的 D. 非正常的

- () 28. What's the main idea of the passage?

A. Parents have a strong influence on their kids.
B. Parents should talk with their kids about anything.
C. Teenagers cannot make their own decisions.
D. Teenagers should be kept away from alcohol.

B

The balance (平衡) between work and life can be really hard. Working longer and harder doesn't mean achieving (实现) more. What's more, you may have no time to spend with the people that you care about. Here are three work-life balance suggestions you can try right now to start living a happier life:

Show gratitude (感谢)

A smart way to create and live happier life is to actively find things or people you are thankful for. This influences not only your own personal state (状态) of mind but also others'. You can send a handwritten card to the people you love or someone who means a lot to you. Try giving thanks for at least three things at the end of each day and see how it changes the way you feel.

Learn to say NO

Sometimes, we have to say YES to things that we really don't want to do. Have the courage (勇气) to live a life on your own terms and say YES only to the things that you really want to do. For everything else, start saying NO. When you start saying NO to most things, you will become more focused (专心的) on everything you have said YES to.

Have more fun

Think about what can get you excited and the people you love spending time with. You can also take some risks, try something new or learn a new skill. If you need to get out of your comfort place to have more fun, just do it. Besides, it's time to make things more exciting.

- () 29. According to the passage, showing gratitude is to _____.
- A. say NO to the things that you really want to do
B. learn to be thankful for some things every day
C. get out of your comfort place and have more fun
D. make things more exciting
- () 30. When you start saying NO to most things, you will _____.
- A. have more time for what you have said YES to
B. try something new and learn a new skill
C. lose some friends and no one will spend time with you
D. see how this changes your feelings
- () 31. What does the writer mainly talk about?
- A. The importance of keeping balance.
B. How to do a good job and live a better life
C. Ways to achieve a better work-life balance.
D. How to show thanks and turn down others.

Dear Jackie,

Hello from Hong Kong! My class tour of China is almost over. Hong Kong is our last stop. We arrived here on Friday night, and I'm having lot of fun.

On Saturday, we visited the top of Victoria Peak. The view (视野) from the top was incredible (极好的)! I could see all of Hong Kong. There were also some nature trails (观景小路) on the peak. We went for a short walk and then had lunch in the afternoon.

In the evening, went with two friends to the Temple Street Night Market. The streets were full of people selling food, clothes, watches, bags, electronics, and lots of other things. I bought some souvenirs (纪念品) to bring home. It was really great day!

Yesterday, our group went to Disneyland (yes, there's one here)! The park was crowded, and the lines for rides were long. I waited an hour to go on Space Mountain. That was my favorite!

Today is Monday, and we're going to Ocean Park to see the pandas. I'm really looking forward to it!

We will leave for home tomorrow night and arrive in Vancouver on Thursday morning. See you soon!

Natalie

Our earth is in trouble. Our drinking water is becoming dirtier, and the air is not as clean as before. People and factories are polluting the air, rivers, lakes and seas. You may think there is nothing you can do to help. That's not true. 36

A lot of water is needed for a shower. So take shorter showers. 40

Every small action can make a big difference to our earth. Let's take action to protect it.

Basketball is a much-loved and active sport that is enjoyed by many for fun and exercise. It is over 100 years old and is played by more than 100 million people in over 200 countries. It is believed that the first basketball game in history was played on December 21, 1891. Then in 1936 in Berlin, it became an event at the Olympics.

Basketball was invented by a Canadian doctor named James Naismith, who was born in 1861. When he was at college, he was asked to invent a new game that could be played indoors during the long winters. Dr. Naismith created a game to be played on a hard wooden floor. Dr. Naismith divided the men in his class into two teams and taught them to play his new game. Players on the same team must work together to get the ball in the other team's basket. At the same time they need to stop the competing team from getting the ball into their own basket.

Today, the popularity of basketball has risen around the world, with many young people dreaming of becoming famous players. In China, you can sometimes see people playing basketball in parks, schools and even factories. Basketball has not only become a popular sport to play, but it has also become a popular sport to watch. Although America's NBA games are the most famous, the CBA games are becoming more popular in China. The number of foreign players, including Chinese players, in the NBA has increased. There are also more and more foreign players in the CBA. Many young people look up to these basketball heroes and want to become like them. These stars encourage young people to work hard to achieve their dreams.

One possible version:

Dear Jenny,

I'm so glad you're coming to China! Before you come, you should know about table manners in our country. Here is some advice.

If you're invited to a dinner, there will be a lot of different dishes, not just three courses. You may find it difficult to use chopsticks if you haven't tried before. It's a good idea to get some practice before you come. When the food is served, you should wait until you're invited to eat. The plates will be placed in the middle of the table for everyone to share. Take a little of everything and then have some more of the things you like. During the meal, you should say how much you like it because it takes much time to prepare it.

I hope this is helpful. E-mail me if you have any other questions.
