Janice: Hey, Philip! You're VERY 36 today. You know what? There are eighteen phone calls asking for you.

Philip: Finally! After all these years of 37 and running, I've got my own football fans! So what did 38 want? My photos? Do I need to sign my name? Are they starting a fan club for me?

Janice: Well, let me ask you this: What day was yesterday?

Philip: 39... Why?

Janice: Did you 40 anything?

Philip: Did I ... Oh, NO! The boss told me to 41 our football team's sport shirts from the shop yesterday, but I forgot all about it! And we're having this big game tomorrow!

Janice: Yeah. And from what I've heard, it's your 42 most important game this season.

Philip: OK. I have to go and get the sport shirts now.

Janice: Too late. Your teammates have 43, but the shop is closed on the weekend. So you cannot have your sport shirts on tomorrow at the big game.

Philip: Oh, I'm a 44 man now.

Janice: Yeah, that was what your teammates said on the phone, eighteen times.

Philip: I've learned a 45 now. It'll remind me not to be so proud.

Scene 1

Living room in Mr Frank's house.

Mr Frank is sitting on the sofa, looking sad. Lestrade enters.

Mr Frank: Good morning, sir. Please be seated and have a drink.

Lestrade: Good morning, Mr Frank. Thank you. So tell me about your case.

Mr Frank: Well, I live alone. My father passed away last week, and he left me a famous painting. I locked it the safe (保险柜) in the living-room yesterday. When I got up this morning, however, the safe was open and the painting wasn't there!

Lestrade: I see a necklace near the open safe. Does anyone know about the painting?

Mr Frank: I showed it to only two people—Zoe and Jimmy. They both work in my house. Oh, the necklace belongs to Zoe. I saw her wear it last week.

Lestrade: I see. Outside the open window, there's a lot of mud on the wet ground. Inside the room, the floor was completely clean. Can I see Zoe and Jimmy, please?

Mr Frank: Sure. Come with me, sir.

Scene 2

Garden behind Mr Frank's house. The garden, full of roses.

Mr Frank is sitting under a large tree. Lestrade is walking around slowly. The sound of quick footsteps is heard.

Zoe: [Rushing to Lestrade.] Oh no, sir! It's not me! I didn't steal the painting. Believe me!

Lestrade: Calm down, Madam. Tell me what you did last night.

Zoe: I went to sleep after I did all the cleaning and washing in the house.

Lestrade: Is this your necklace, Madam? [Showing the necklace.] I found it near the open safe.

Zoe: Why, yes! It's mine! I lost it three days ago. It was cheap, so I didn't tell anyone. Sir, believe me! [Starting to cry.]

Lestrade: Madam. I never jump to conclusions. I need proof. What about you, Jimmy?

Jimmy: I was on guard the whole night. It was raining and I didn't see anything unusual.

Lestrade: OK. You two can leave now. [Turning to Mr Frank.] I know who the thief is.

Mr Frank: [With eyes and mouth wide open] You do? Who is it?

Lestrade: You, sir!

Mr Frank: Me? You mean I stole my own painting? Are you kidding?

Lestrade: I'm serious, Mr Frank. The mud outside and the clean floor inside told me that probably no thief broke into your house. Before I came here, I had checked with the insurance(保险) company. They told me you had bought insurance for the painting. They would pay you 200,000 dollars if the painting was stolen.

Mr Frank: What about the necklace, then?

Lestrade: You stole it as well. You tried to make sure that Zoe'd go to prison instead of you. Mr Frank, I like being a detective. My dream is to find the real criminal and protect the person who hasn't done anything wrong...

56. What case is this?

- A. A murder.                      B. A kidnapping.                      C. A theft.                      D. A robbery.

57. Who was the criminal?

- A. Mr Frank.                      B. Mr Frank's father.                      C. Zoe.                      D. Jimmy.

58. What are the steps Lestrade used in finding out the truth?

- a. He checked Zoe's story about someone stealing her necklace.
b. He interviewed Jimmy.
c. He had a talk with Mr Frank about the missing painting.
d. He found some clues at the scene.
e. He checked and found that Mr Frank has bought insurance for the painting.

- A. c-d-e-a-b                      B. c-d-a-b-e                      C. e-c-a-d-b                      D. e-c-d-a-b

59. What does the underline phrase "jump to conclusions" mean?

- A. make a decision after a long time                      B. come to a decision too quickly
C. change my mind suddenly                      D. move around in a hurry

60. The underlined part "With eyes and mouth wide open" shows that Mr Frank is _____.

- A. delighted                      B. surprised                      C. confident                      D. angry

B) 用括号中所给单词的正确形式填空, 使短文内容完整、正确。

Dear Helen,

I know you will be 66 (happy) but I still have to say this again. It hurts 67 (I) to think that you're going to change the way you are. I know you have always wanted to be like those pretty 68 (actress) with big eyes and slim legs, but in fact you are already beautiful. What you are born with 69 (make) you special because nobody looks the same as you. It worries me more that you 70 (not think) you're good enough. But 71 (sad), there's no quick fix to this, not even with the doctor's help. If you don't try to like 72 (you), no one else will. People like you not because of your face, but because of your heart. You need to understand this 73 (one). Until you understand this, nothing 74 (be) different even if you have this change.

I truly hope you think this through again. Hope you find my suggestions worth 75 (take).

Love,

Linda

Sometimes I f 78 quite lonely at home. When was the last time we had a family outing a 79 the weekend? When was the last time we had a long talk? How can parents not care about their c 80 ?

B) 阅读下面的短文，按要求回答问题。

If I Were A Boy Again

If I were a boy again, I would try hard to know about myself. Then I would deal honestly with myself, to study up my own weaknesses and strengths. I would begin early enough, before mistakes had time to become habits.

If I were a boy again, I would never give up. There is nothing more valuable than a continued effort when the right thing needs to be done.

If I were a boy again, I would try to look on the cheerful side of everything. Life is like a mirror; if you smile upon it, it smiles back on you. If you frown (皱眉), you will be sure to get a similar look in return.

If I were a boy again, I would build a habit of attention, and I would let nothing come between me and the subject at hand: an ice skater never tries to skate in two directions at once. One of our great mistakes, while we are young, is that we do not focus strictly on what we are doing at that particular moment. It is easy to learn how to pay attention, if we begin early enough.

by James Thomas Fields
