Visitors to London often eat in restaurants. The owners and workers in them are all from other countries. The visitors say in these restaurants they don't feel they are in England. Most of English people eat at home as much as they can. Sometimes they themselves will think they are in another country when they are in restaurants. When an Englishman goes out of a restaurant, he may find that he doesn't understand why everything is written in French and Italian.

Most of English people think it is better to eat at home, because it is cheaper. They don't want to spend much money on food and they like cooking at home. They like fast food. But for Christmas, they will spend two or three weeks getting ready for it, because they want to have good food.

James is a good student and he has lots of friends, but he also has a problem. Some older boys are bullying(欺负)him at school. James is very unhappy and he doesn't know what to do about it. Here are some suggestions to him and other teenagers in this situation.

Don't feel worried. It's not your fault(过错)! Being bullied can make you feel very lonely and angry, but you are not alone. Don't feel that you have to hide the problem. You should find a person you can trust, and tell them. It might be your teacher, your parents, or even your friend's parents. After you tell someone, you will get some support(支持) and feel some relief(解脱).

Speaking to an adult might make you nervous, but here are other things you can do. Some people express their feelings more easily on paper. Write a letter to someone or keep a diary. Include all the details(细节)about what the bullies do, as well as when and where the bullying happens. You can use it as proof to show what is going on. And it is a wonderful idea to show your letter or diary to a teacher or another responsible adult. Then the bullies will feel very afraid if their names appear in a letter! Also, don't show you are sad and don't try and fight with the bullies. You could get in trouble yourself. Ignore(忽略) them and just walk away. The bullies will soon stop.

- () 34. What do you think the text is trying to tell us?
- A. What to do about being bullied.
 - B. How to be a good student at school.
 - C. What to write well in a diary.
 - D. How to give suggestions to teenagers.
- () 35. Why does the text advise you not to feel worried if bullied?
- A. Because you are not alone.
 - B. Because it is not your fault.
 - C. Because someone has known about it.
 - D. Because you're doing something wrong.
- () 36. You'd better go and find a person you can trust and ____.
- A. know what happens
 - B. learn from them
 - C. ask for help
 - D. make them lonely
- () 37. If you remember and follow the suggestions above, ____.
- A. nobody will speak to the bullies
 - B. everybody will feel some relief
 - C. someone will express their feelings
 - D. the bullies will soon stop

四、阅读回答 (共 5 小题, 每小题 2 分, 满分 10 分)

Dear Mum and Dad,

I arrived in Toronto this morning. Ted and his dad met me at the airport.

When we arrived at Ted's house, his dog Guinness welcomed us. He's a big, cute dog, and I really like him. I met his mum and his sister Tina, too. His mum is very kind and Tina is friendly.

Ted showed me my room. It is on the second floor, next to Ted's room. In the room, there is a big wardrobe and a desk. I have my own computer and telephone. I like my new room.

In the evening, they had a welcome party for me. I met Ted's grandparents, uncle, aunt and his cousin Jenny. She invited me to her birthday party next month.

I'm happy to be here, but I miss you.

Love,
Bill
