The hippo lives in the hot part of Africa. It is a very large animal with short legs. A hippo weighs about four tons. Its stomach is about seven metres long. It spends a lot of time in the water.

During the day, the hippo sleeps beside a river or a lake. Sometimes, it wakes up. Then it goes under the water to get some plants for food. It only eats plants. At night, it walks on the land and looks for food. It never goes very far from the water.

The hippo can close its nose and stay under water for ten minutes. Its ears, eyes and nose, are high up on its head. It can stay with its body under the water, only its ears, eyes and nose above the water, so it can breathe the air.

A baby hippo drinks milk from its mother's body. It often stands on its mother's back. The mother looks for food under the water, and the baby hippo rides on her back above the water.

- () 54. How long is the hippo's stomach?
A. Four tons. B. Seven meters. C. Four meters. D. Seven tons.

Sometimes, my mom likes to cook breakfast food for dinner. I remember one night when she made pancakes, sausage and biscuits (饼干). All of the food was great... except the biscuits. They were very burned. They looked like pieces of black charcoal.

But my dad didn't seem to mind. I watched him eat his biscuits happily, not seeming to care if (是否) they tasted bad. My mom said sorry for burning the biscuits in a while.

Later that night, before I went to bed, I asked my dad if he really liked biscuits. He explained that my mom worked hard all day, and that she was quite tired by the time she cooked our dinner. I smiled. The biscuits seemed to become nice.

It was then that I understood why he told mom that he liked eating the burned biscuits.

Everyone has faults (错误). Nobody can do everything right all the time. Accepting others' faults is one of the keys to building healthy relationships. If we don't accept these things, we'll never enjoy true love and understanding.

- () 58. One night the writer's mom cooked _____ biscuits.
A. great B. burned C. nice D. charcoal

C. may be interested in making biscuits D. helped his mom cook dinner
- () 61. The writer mainly wants to tell us _____.
A. his mother was quite tired by the time she cooked the dinner
B. everyone has faults
C. his father liked eating the burned biscuits
D. accepting others' faults can help us enjoy true love and understanding

"David!"

David is confused. Who is calling his name?

"David! It's late!" It's a woman's voice. It's a voice he knows. David opens his eyes. His mother is standing at the door of his bedroom. "Do you know what time it is?" she asks.

"Erm..." says David.

"It's eight o'clock! You're late for school! Now, hurry up!" His mother goes back to the kitchen. David doesn't want to leave David Delgado in a dangerous situation, but he has no choice. So he gets up. There are books and comics all around his room. David loves reading, and he loves writing, too. He writes stories about a lot of different characters. And his favourite character is David Delgado, the Great Detective.

David lives alone with his mother. He hasn't got a father. He hasn't got any brothers or sisters. And he hasn't got a pet. He likes cats, but his mother says he can't have one. She says they can't have a cat because they haven't got a garden. David thinks his mother simply doesn't want a cat. A boy in his class lives in a flat and he has a cat. And David knows that pirates have cats, and they haven't got gardens!

But in a way he doesn't mind. He doesn't feel lonely. His head is full of explorers, gangsters, astronauts, cowboys, Native Americans and secret agents.

"Eat your breakfast quickly, love." says his mum.

She is making his lunch. She works at the hospital and she is wearing her nurse's uniform. She starts work in half an hour and she is in a hurry.

"OK," David replies, starting to eat his cereal. His mother looks quite serious. He knows she worries about him a lot.

"Don't forget your sandwiches," she says.

But ten minutes later, when David runs out of the front door to catch the bus, his lunch is still on the table.

And then David misses the bus. He waits another fifteen minutes for the next one.

() 62. What is David's mother's job?

A. A teacher.

B. A doctor.

C. A nurse.

D. A cook.

() 63. Why doesn't David have a cat?

A. Because his mother likes dogs.

B. Because they have no money.

C. Because his mother doesn't want a cat.

D. Because he doesn't want a pet.

() 64. Who is David Delgado?

A. He is David's classmate, the Great Detective.

B. He is David's brother, living with him.

C. He is David's favourite character in a film.

D. He is David's favourite character in his stories.

() 65. Which is the correct order of what happens to David?

a. David waits fifteen more minutes for the next bus.

b. David gets up.

c. David leaves the sandwiches on the table.

d. David's mother stands at the door of his bedroom.

A. d-b-c-a

B. d-c-a-b
