I like watching TV very much, for I think it has many advantages. First of all, watching TV can give a good rest. After a day's hard work, we need a good rest. Watching TV can make us relaxed because of the pleasant music and TV plays.

Besides, watching TV is entertaining. There are many kinds of entertainments, such as sports activities, concerts, plays and films all over the world at any time. It's not possible for us to go to every place to enjoy all the activities in a short time. We need over ten hours to fly from New York to Paris, a week by train from Beijing to Moscow and an hour drive from Queens District to Manhattan District. But just one second, TV can bring us from an NBA game in New York to a fashion show in Paris by changing the channels.

Most importantly, watching TV is educational. Our children can learn different kinds of subjects through the educational programs and the special reports on TV. It's easy for them to learn Chinese from a Chinese teacher in Beijing and to learn Russian from a Russian teacher in Moscow. We can even learn how to behave well from the TV plays and a teacher can teach many students without a huge classroom.

Judge the following sentences true (T) or false (F) according to the passage.

- () 61. The underlined word "entertaining" maybe means "欣赏" in Chinese.
 () 62. According to the writer the most important reason for watching TV is we can learn something useful.
 () 63. The writer talks about four advantages in the passage.
 () 64. We can infer the writer must love watching TV very much.
 () 65. In the second paragraph the writer wants to show: TV brings different parts of the world to us.

Our eating habits are very important for good health and a strong body. There are times when most of us would have sweets and ice creams rather than eat meat and rice. Sweets and ice creams are not bad for our stomachs if we eat them at the end of a meal. If we drink beer at meals, it may take away our appetite (食欲). It is important for us to eat our meals at the same time each day. When we feel hungry, it is a sign that our body needs food. When we feel excited, we may not want to eat. A long time ago, in England, some judges used to decide whether a man was telling the truth by giving him some dry bread. If the man could not swallow the bread, it was a sign that he was not telling the truth. Although this seems very strange and rather foolish, it is really an excellent way of finding out the truth. A man who is worried has difficulty in swallowing dry bread. Because of his worry, he loses his appetite and does not want to eat.

Choose the best choice according to what you read.

- () 71. Why do we have to form good eating habits?
- A. Because we want to eat more.
B. Because we enjoy our meals
C. Because we want to keep fit.
- () 72. When is it good to eat sweets and ice creams according to the passage?
- A. When we are happy.
B. When we have good appetite.
C. At the end of a meal.
- () 73. The underlined word "swallow" means _____.
- A. take something into the stomach through the throat
B. eat with difficulty
C. break the food with the teeth before taking in
- () 74. When does the writer think it would be better to have our meals?
- A. When we finish our work.
B. At a fixed time every day.
C. When every family member is at home!
- () 75. What could a man do if he told a lie according to some judges a long time ago in England?
- A. He could hardly need any food.
B. He could swallow some dry bread easily.
C. He could not swallow any dry bread.

(E)

An old man lived alone in his old house. He hardly ever came out. He wouldn't communicate with others.

One day, a little boy selling magazines knocked at the man's door. The door slowly opened. "Uh, sir, would you like to buy a magazine?" The old man just stared (盯着) at the boy. The boy saw lots of dog sculptures (雕塑品) on the table. "Do you collect dogs?" The boy asked. "Yes, they are all my family." Hearing this, the boy understood and felt sorry for him. "I have a magazine here about dogs. It's perfect for you." The old man was ready to close the door and said, "No, I don't need any magazines."

The boy suddenly had an idea. He had a dog sculpture, which did not mean much to him. After a while, the boy returned with a box. The old man shouted this time, "I told you no magazines!" "I bring you a gift." The boy opened the box and handed him the sculpture. The man got surprised because no one had given him a gift. From that day on, the old man started coming out of his house. He and the boy became friends. The boy even brought his pet dog to visit the old man every week.

Answer the questions according to the passage.

76. Did the old man live with his children?

77. What did the boy sell?

78. Where were the old man's dog sculptures?

79. Why did the old man get surprised when he got the gift?

80. What do you think of the boy?

82. (A) Our city is now making its effort to become a civilized city. As students, what should we do?

We must respect our teachers and be polite to others. We should also help those who are in need and be friendly to the people around us. Besides, we must obey the traffic rules. When crossing the streets, we should walk on the zebra crossing. And we mustn't go across the street when the traffic lights are red. What's more, we should protect our environment. For example, we mustn't step on the grass and climb trees. Litter mustn't be thrown everywhere.

Let's try our best to make it a civilized city.

(B) Mary is a middle school student. Yesterday she was praised by the headmaster at the school meeting for turning in the wallet she had picked in the street. The headmaster asked the students to learn from her. Her classmates applauded loudly for her noble deed and Mary felt proud of herself. On their way home, her friend said to her, "You are so lucky, Mary, but can you tell me where you picked up the wallet?" But Mary kept it a secret.

In fact, the wallet belonged to her grandma. She pretended to have picked it up in the street.
