As a student, it's very important and necessary to have good manners. We must know what we should do and what we shouldn't do. First, We should speak politely. We can say "Thank you", "Excuse me,...?" or "Could you please...?" as often as possible. Second, We must obey traffic rules. We should cross the street when the traffic light is green. Third, We should protect our environment. Do remember not to step on the grass or pick flowers. Rubbish mustn't be thrown everywhere. What's more, it's impolite to speak loudly in public. The most important thing is that we should respect others and try our best to help others when they are in trouble.

In a word, everyone should be a student with good manners.
