Dear Dr. Know,

There are too many rules! At 6:00 a.m., my mom says, "Get up now and make your bed!" After breakfast, my mom always says, "Don't leave the dirty dishes in the kitchen!" After that, I run to school because I can't be late. At school, we have more rules — don't be noisy, don't eat in class, ...

My dad says I can't play basketball after school because I must do my homework. I can play only on weekends. After dinner, I can't relax either. I must read a book before I can watch TV. But I have to go to bed before 10:00. Rules, rules, rules! It's terrible!

What can I do, Dr. Know?

Molly Brown

Dear Molly,

I know how you feel. People always tell us, "Don't do this!" or "You can't do that!" But think about it, Molly. There are a lot of things you can do. You can play basketball on weekends. You can watch TV after you read a book. Parents and schools are sometimes strict, but remember, they make rules to help us. We have to follow them.

Good luck!

Dr. Know

51. What are the letters (信) about?
 A. Rules. B. Parents. C. Schools.
52. How does Molly go to school?
 A. She drives to school. B. She rides to school. C. She runs to school.
53. Before Molly can watch TV, she must _____.
 A. make her bed B. play basketball C. read a book
54. When does Molly have to go to bed?
 A. Before 10:00 p.m.. B. After 10:00 p.m.. C. At 11:00 p.m..

55. Why do parents and schools make rules according to (根据) Dr. Know?

- A. Because they are always strict.
- B. Because they want to help us.
- C. Because they don't want us to relax.

C

Jerry was a 13-year-old boy. He had many bad habits. His family worried about him very much and wanted to help him.

One day, Jerry visited his grandfather in the countryside. Jerry's grandfather took him out for a walk in the forest.

His grandfather showed him a small sapling (树苗) and asked him to pull (拔) it out. Jerry thought, "Why did my grandfather tell me to do that?" But Jerry didn't say anything and did it easily. Then they walked on.

After that, they saw a small tree. The grandfather asked Jerry to pull out the small tree. He thought he could do it, too. Jerry tried (尝试) hard and pulled out the tree at last. He thought it was difficult to do that.

Then they came to a big tree. The grandfather asked him to pull it out. Jerry thought, "Can I pull out the big tree?" He worked hard for a long time, in different ways. He failed to pull it out in the end. In fact (确切的说), he couldn't move the tree at all.

Jerry's grandfather looked at him, smiled and said, "This is like your bad habits. It's best to get rid of (改掉) them early on (在早期)."
