Bullying* can happen to anyone. A great many children around the world are bullied every year, but there are things that they can do to help.

What is bullying? Bullying is when someone makes you feel bad or hurts you again and again. Bullying can happen at school, out of school and online. Bullying includes a lot of things, such as calling people mean* names, laughing at people, telling lies about people, taking someone's things without permission*, don't let someone play in a group and hitting people.

What is cyberbullying? It includes the following actions, for example, send bad messages online, share photos online without permission, don't let someone be part of an online group and spread lies online.

▲ If someone is not kind to you, tell an adult that you know and like. For example, talk to your parents or teachers. If you get bad messages, don't reply. You should save them and give them to your teacher, your family, or the police. Ask an adult for help. Don't share something before you make sure it is true. That will help stop the cyberbullying. Talk to your parents or teacher or an adult if you see bullying or if you are worried about a friend. Say sorry if you are not kind to someone. You can write a message or talk to the person. And always remember: think about how to be kind in the future. For more information, visit our home page at www.kidsworld.com.
