The Dragon Boat Festival is one of the traditional festivals in China. It usually comes in June. As we know, this festival is in memory of Qu Yuan--a great Chinese poet. Families usually get together to have a big meal. Of course, Zongzi is the most famous food. Last year, we had a different Dragon Boat Festival. Our family had a three-day trip to Qu Yuan's hometown--Yichang. We visited the museum and took some photos. What's more, we watched the boat races. The trip was really interesting and wonderful.
