Anna used to wake you up on Sunday morning when you wanted to stay in bed, but now you feel strange if she gets up before lunch. She used to be very quiet, but now she talks all the time—but not to you. She used to hold your hand when you went to visit your friends. Now she doesn't even want to be seen with you when you go to visit your friends. Your Anna might spend hours on the phone or in the bathroom now. At the same time, Nick next door has become quiet and dirty. He used to be very polite. Now a simple conversation with Nick becomes very difficult. You've gone from a hero to the most embarrassing adult in the world. Your child has become a teenager!

What makes adolescence(青春期) so difficult? Physical(身体上的) and emotional changes are the reasons that make them change so much. When they are young, children live in a safe and simple land called "childhood". Parents organize their lives. Parents choose children's clothes, take them to places, and spend time with them. They're there with the children when there is a problem. As children get older, however, they learn about another land—an exciting land, called "adulthood". Sooner or later their hormones(荷尔蒙) push them into the open sea—away from the safe land or childhood. Adolescence, then, is the journey from childhood to adulthood. Some find the journey quite easy. For others, it's very difficult.

C. Because parents look at Anna differently.
D. Because teachers look at Anna differently.
65. What is the best title for the article? ____.
- A. The changes from childhood to adolescence B. A teenager's life
C. Parents' attitudes towards teenagers D. Difficult adolescence

Almost every Chinese person can recite the two lines of the famous poem, "Every grain on the plate comes from hard work (谁知盘中餐, 粒粒皆辛苦)." But sadly, many of us don't actually get the real meaning of these lines: Don't waste food.

A CCTV program, News One Plus One, reported that the food Chinese people throw away every year is enough to feed 200 million people for a year.

Do we have too much food? No. According to the UN World Food Program, there were 925 million hungry people around the world in 2010, especially in developing countries. Six million children die of hunger every year.

Chinese people are well known for being generous (慷慨的). Many even feel that they lose face if their guests have eaten all the food on the table.

Luckily, a number of people have realized the importance of saving food. Last November, Li Hong, a waitress in a restaurant in Nanjing, got fired (开除) because she took some leftover (剩余的) food home for her son. Many people stood by her side and agreed that it was not right to waste food.

What should we do in our daily lives to waste less food? Here are some tips:

1. Do not order(点菜) too much in a restaurant. Only order what you want to eat. If you cannot eat all the food you ordered, take the rest of it home.
2. Don't be too picky(挑剔的) about food. Some food may not taste great. But your body needs it.
3. Keep an eye on what food you have at home. Don't buy too much, especially for vegetables and fruit.

A. we have too much food to feed people in the world
B. there were 925 million people in developing countries
C. because of hunger, six million children die every year
D. there are only a few people getting hungry every year

68. From the fourth and fifth paragraphs, we can conclude (得出结论) that _____.
A. all Chinese people are generous

D. everyone should get into the habit of saving food

A. When we order too much food in a restaurant, just take the leftover food home.

There are many things that you should be careful when you are alone at home. Listen to the following solutions to protect yourself.

First, you should keep the door locked when you are alone at home. Many people think it's the best way to protect themselves. Second, you should keep a list of phone numbers to call for help--such as 110, the police station or a neighbor's number. Third, be careful with the electrical appliances. If you don't know how to use them, ask your parents. Make a safety check before going to sleep. At last, you should look through the keyhole when you hear the doorbell. If there are strangers, ask "Who's that?" with the door locked and say "come back later." Don't tell them that your parents are away. Say "Mum's having a shower." or "Dad's having a sleep."
