Hello! I'm Helen! Today, Mr. Chen asks us to discuss what we can do to live a green life.

Michael stands up quickly and says that more and more families have owned cars. And this causes serious air pollution. So he often rides a bike to school. Sally agrees with Michael. She thinks it's wise for people to choose public transport. Her mom used to drive her to school, but now she often takes a bus. Mary also gives a good way to be a greener. She advises us to take shorter showers to save water. Jim tells us not to forget the waste, such as used paper and water. He always asks his friends to protect the environment by recycling the waste. I think their ideas are very good. In my opinion, we should remember to turn off the lights when we leave our classroom.

A gift with special meaning

I have received lots of gifts so far. Among the gifts, the most special one is a book.

Several years ago, I hurt my legs because of an accident. So I had to stay at home for a few months. After I came back to school, I fell behind others. I wanted to give up studying. At this time, my good friend, Jack, gave me a book. It tells a story about a boy without arms or legs. The book encouraged me a lot. I was not afraid of difficulties any more. Later, my study got better and better. Thanks for this special gift.

From the gift, I have learnt a lot. When we face difficulties, we should never give up easily. What's more, we should always be ready to help others, especially while they are in trouble.
