Dear Paul,

I am writing to tell you something about my friend Wang Yong. His name is Wang Yong. Wang Yong is a student. He studies in No.5 Middle School. He is 13 years old. He likes hamburgers best, because he thinks they are delicious. He also likes apples. They can help him keep healthy. As a saying goes, "An apple a day keeps the doctor away." But he doesn't like ice cream. He thinks it's unhealthy. Of all the sports, tennis is his favorite. He always plays tennis with his friends on weekends. He doesn't like running, because he thinks it is tiring. He likes Chinese best. He is good at it. But he doesn't like math. He thinks it's difficult and boring.

Do you want to be friends with him?

Yours,

Liming
