One possible version:

The all-round buddy in my heart

I would like to choose my friend Alex as the all-round buddy in my heart.

Alex is a friendly boy in our school. He has a square face and two bright smiling eyes. He's a hard-working student and he does well in all of his subjects. Alex is very patient, too. He's also humorous and often tells funny jokes to make us laugh. Alex loves travelling to different places of interest. He likes playing chess, too. He enjoys doing DIY in his spare time.

Alex once helped me with my homework. He explained the problems to me again and again without getting angry. He stayed with me for two hours until I finished my homework. Alex is really kind and helpful. He's the all-round buddy in my heart.
