Dear Sam,

I'm glad to hear from you. Last Saturday, we had a class meeting about my dream in the future. I think it's very meaningful. We had the class meeting in our classroom. Everyone shared their ideas. I have a dream. I want to be a writer when I grow up. I'm interested in writing. Writing has become part of my life. Through writing, I can share my ideas and make friends with others. To make my dream come true, I should read widely and work hard at school. It's also important to find out how people manage to do it so that I can learn from them. I'll hold on to my dream till I make it one day.

Yours,

Lucy
