三、阅读理解 (共 12 小题, 每小题 1.5 分; 满分 18 分)

阅读短文, 然后根据其内容从 A、B、C、D 中选出最佳选项。

A

What would you do if you saw litter (垃圾) on the floor of your classroom? Would you walk around it or pick it up yourself?

A long time ago, there was a king who wanted to know what his country was like. He went outside and put a large stone on the road. He then hid behind some tall trees and watched to see if anyone would move the stone out of the way. Some rich people came by, but they just walked around it.

Many people complained that the king wasn't keeping the roads clear, but none of them tried to move the stone out of the way.

A farmer then came along with a bag of vegetables on his back. He walked up to the big stone, put down his bag and tried to push the stone out of the road. After much pushing and pulling, he finally moved it aside.

Then the farmer went back to pick up his vegetables and saw a bag lying in the road where the stone had been.

There were many gold coins in the bag and a note (纸条) from the king. He explained that the gold was for the person who moved the stone off the road.

Every difficulty we meet in life gives us a chance to improve ourselves. While the lazy complain, others are taking the time to get things done.

46. Where did the king hide after he put a large stone on the road?
 A. In a corner.                      B. Behind some trees.
 C. In the house.                      D. In the bag.

48. What did the farmer see when he went back to get his vegetable?
 A. A stone.                      B. The king.                      C. A bag.                      D. A note.

49. From the text, we know that every difficulty we meet in life is _____.
 A. a chance                      B. a problem                      C. money                      D. gold

We had a school trip to the Dashan Collection House, a building of two floors on March 24. It is open from 9:00 am to 5:00 pm. We took the school bus and arrived at 9:00. When we entered the collection house, we saw a collection of old photos of the town on the walls of the front hall. Those photos told us something about the history of the town. And then in the Art Room, we saw many photos of the countryside. Some famous artists drew them. The colors of the flowers and the trees were rich and bright.

Then we went upstairs. On the left, there were over one hundred different clocks. The oldest clock was already more than two hundred years old. To my surprise, the clocks all worked well and they could tell the right time. It was then ten o'clock, and some clocks made different beautiful sounds. It seemed to be a concert (音乐会). How surprising!

On the right there was also a stone collection. The stones were from all over the country. They were in different sizes, colors and shapes (形状). Some looked like different kinds of animals. I really liked one stone that looked like a little monkey. It looked very nice.

The collections were wonderful. So we stayed there until 11:30 in the morning. I had a great time and really liked the school trip.

50. What time does the Dashan Collection House open?
 A. At 5:00 a.m.                      B. At 9:00 a.m.
 C. At 10:00 a.m.                      D. At 11:30 a.m.

51. The writer felt surprised because _____.
 A. the clocks were over 100 years old
 B. the clocks could have a concert
 C. all the clocks made different nice sounds
 D. all the clocks never told the wrong time

52. What did the writer prefer when he went upstairs?
 A. A monkey.                      B. A stone.                      C. A photo.                      D. A clock.

53. What did the writer think of the collections?
 A. Great.                      B. Different.                      C. Beautiful.                      D. Famous.

C

Katelyn Haslebacher is a 14-year-old student at Sunset High School, Texas, US. She loves elephants. She has elephant bags and toys and puts elephant pictures on her bedroom wall.

Haslebacher's love of elephants has encouraged her to do something for the animals.

For her year-long eighth-grade project, she started a foundation (基金会) called All Ears Elephant. The foundation gives medical care and other help to elephants.

As a violinist, Haslebacher had a concert online to raise money for the foundation last year. She made the whole thing herself — she asked different people to hand in songs, put them all together and uploaded (上传) the final work to the Internet. "It was great," Haslebacher's mother said.

Haslebacher raised nearly 4,000 dollars (about 26,000 yuan) and gave the money to two elephant sanctuaries (保护区).

54. What is the best title of the text?
 A. A 14-year-old boy                      B. All Ears Elephant
 C. Big friends need help                      D. Elephants need money

55. What does Haslebacher put on her bedroom wall?
 A. Elephant bags.                      B. Elephant toys.

a better choice    by air    closer to    have fun    on the beach

Dear Angela,
I'm so glad to hear from you.
In my opinion, Mega is 1 for you. First, you can go to Mega 2 and it is more comfortable. Second, Mega is warmer, and the beach is 3 the hotel. I think you can have more fun 4 at Mega. Third, the room is cheaper in Mega and the food is more delicious too.

Enjoy yourself and 5. Wish you a happy holiday!

Yours,
Sarah

B) 假设你是李华, 你收到了来自英国笔友 Mike 来信, 询问有关学好汉语的方法。请你给他写一封回信, 内容包括:

1. 写信的目的;
2. 具体建议;
3. 表达期待。

注意:

1. 词数 80-100。开头、结尾已为你写好, 不计入总词数;
2. 短文须包括所给内容信息。可以适当增加细节, 以使行文连贯。
