Dear Tom,

How are you? I'm at a new school this term. And I'm writing to tell you about my school. My new school is big and nice. There are 1,400 students and 140 teachers at my school. I like the teachers. They are very kind to me. My classmates are very friendly. They teach me Chinese and I teach them English. There are trees, flowers and green grass at my school. They are very beautiful. Behind my school, there is a small river. The water in it is very clean. We have no classes on Saturdays and Sundays. Sometimes I play football or basketball with my friends. Sometimes I stay at home and watch TV. My favourite thing is to go shopping with my mother. We all like China.

Please write to me soon!

Yours,
Jack

Calvin needs to go to New York for a meeting this Saturday. It's sunny. It's his first time to go to New York, so he doesn't know his way around New York. The meeting is in Peterson Building on 34th Street and it begins at ten o'clock. He wants to get there on time, so he asks two boys for help.

"Excuse me, can you tell me where 34th Street is?" asks Calvin.

"Sure." answers one of the boys. "It's not far from here. And you can just walk down this street and turn left at the first crossing. Then you can see it on your right."

"No. Don't listen to him. He is not telling you the right place. You can just take the No. 7 bus and get off at the third stop," says the other boy.

Then the first boy says, "OK. But the third stop is not 34th Street. It's 35th Street."

At this time, Calvin finds it is 9:55. Then he gets into a taxi and leaves. After that, Calvin thinks he should (应该) ask a policeman for help next time.
