Mr. Green is a kind old man. He often helps people in need. And he's kind of smart, too. One Sunday afternoon, he finished his lunch and went out for a walk with his granddaughter, Kate. In front of a park, they saw three beggars there.

"Why do they ask for money in the street?" asked the little girl. "Because they are poor." answered Mr. Green.

"But why don't they go to work?" asked the little girl again. "Because they are too lazy." Mr. Green smiled and said.

Just then the girl asked, "Do you know who is the laziest of them, grandpa?"

"That's easy." said Mr. Green, "I can show it to you."

He came up to the beggars, brought out five dollars and said, "I'll give the money to the laziest person of you. Tell me who he is."

"I lost my job two years ago." the first beggar stood up quickly and said.

"Of course I am! I stopped working one year earlier than him." the second beggar said, "So give me the money."

However, the third man went on lying (躺着) on the ground and said, "Come here, Sir. Put the money into my bag!"

阅读下面短文，根据其内容，完成表格中所缺的信息(每空 1 词)。

Most dictionaries will tell you many things about a language. Generally speaking, a dictionary tells you the important things: spelling, pronunciation, and meaning.

The first thing, a dictionary will tell you the spelling of a word. If you are not sure about the spelling of a word, you can try to find the correct spelling in a dictionary. The words are always given in alphabetical(字母顺序)order in a dictionary -a,b,c, d, e, f, g, and so on. For example, on a dictionary page the word"secret"-s,e,c,r,e,t-comes before "sentence"-s, e, n, t, e, n, c, e . And the word "sentence" comes before "speed" -s,p, e,e,d.If you know this, you can find a word that you want to know in a dictionary easily and quickly.The second thing, a dictionary will tell you pronunciation. Almost all dictionaries give phonetic transcriptions(音标). It can tell you how a word is pronounced. There are a few different phonetic transcriptions. Many dictionaries use the International Phonetic Alphabet to show the pronunciation.

The third thing, a dictionary will tell you the meaning of a word. You can look up a word and find out what it means in the dictionary. Many words have more than one meaning, and a good dictionary will tell you all of the words' meaning. For example, in English, the common word"get"has over 20 different meanings.

The function (功能) of a ___76___
Spelling	A dictionary lists words in alphabetical order. It's ___77___ and quick to find a word in a dictionary.
___78___	You can find the pronunciation of a word in the dictionary.
