If we want to deal with the association between boys and girls properly, here are some “dos and don’ts” for you to follow.

Keep a normal and healthy state of mind. Our schools and classes are made up of boys and girls. It is very nature for the boys and girls to make friends with each other. We should make as many friends as possible. We should keep touch with the other sex(性别) in public instead of in secret.

Don’t be too nervous or too shy. If you are a shy person, you can also find a way out. First of all, you can make friends with the students who have the same interest and hobby as you. As both of you have much in common, you may have much to talk about. If you keep doing like that, little by little, you will gladly find you are also as free to express yourself as others.

Don't fall into the ditch of early love. The boys and girls at a adolescence (青春期) are rich in feeling. They are easy to regard the friendship as a sign of love and fall in love with each other at an early age. In my opinion, early love is a green apple that can't be eaten. An apple won't taste sweet until it is full ripe. Boys and girls at middle school are too young to carry the heavy duty of love. Do keep out of early love.

56. The main idea of the passage is to _____.
 A. tell students to keep away from early love

 C. tell students how to make friends D. teach boys how to talk with girls
57. We should keep touch with the other sex in following ways EXCEPT _____.
 A. with a good state of mind B. in real friendship
 C. in public D. in secret
58. If you are a shy person, you can _____.
 A. find friends with the same interest and hobby first
 B. only have a few friends of the same sex
 C. not make friends with the other sex
 D. not fall in love with other students easily
59. What does the underlined word "ripe" mean?
 A. bitter B. beautiful C. ready to eat D. nice
60. The main purpose of the passage is to _____.
 A. ask the boys and girls at a adolescence not to fall in love too early

 C. pay attention to teenagers' mental problems
 D. tell people not to get too much stress

It’s not often to see a team earn 11 straight wins(连胜) in a tournament(锦标赛). However, the Chinese women’s volleyball team has done it!

On September 29th, 2019, China took the Women’s Volleyball World Cup trophy (奖杯) in Japan. The team didn’t lose any of its games during the tournament. It was also the team’s 10th world title.

“The trophy is the best gift to celebrate the 70th birthday of New China,” People’s Daily said in an article.

The Chinese women’s volleyball team has long been the pride of Chinese athletics. In the 1980s, the team won five world titles in a row, which raised people’s confidence at the time. Since then, its fighting spirit has inspired generations (一代代) of people, both within the team and across the country.

Working hard was key to the team’s success. The World Cup was played in several different cities and the team didn’t have much time to train. The girls had to squeeze in (挤出) training time when they could. On September 25th, for example, they arrived in Osaka at 2: 30 p.m. and started training only an hour later.

Never giving up, especially during difficult times, is also part of the team’s fighting spirit, according to head coach Lang Ping. Many of the team’s members kept on playing even after being injured (受伤的). Opposite hitter Gong Xiangyu went to Japan with an injured finger. Blocker Yan Ni had a serious shoulder injury.

With their latest win, the girls are ready to prepare for 2021 Tokyo Olympics.

86. How many games did Chinese women’s volleyball team won in 2019 tournament?
