Healthy eating doesn't just mean what you eat, but how you eat. Here is some advice on healthy eating.

Eat with others. It can help you to see others' healthy eating habits. If you usually eat with your parents, you will find that the food you eat is more delicious.

Listen to your body. Ask yourself if you are really hungry. Have a glass of water to see if you are thirsty — sometimes you are just thirsty, you need no food. Stop eating before you feel full.

Eat breakfast. Breakfast is the most important meal of the day. After you don't eat for the past ten hours, your body needs food to get you going. You will be smarter after eating breakfast.

Eat healthy snacks like fruits, yogurt or cheese. We all need snacks sometimes. In fact, it's a good idea to eat two healthy snacks between your three meals. This doesn't mean that you can eat a bag of chips instead of a meal.

Don't eat dinner late. With our busy life, we always put off eating dinner until the last minute. Try to eat dinner at least 3 hours before you go to bed. This will give your body a chance to digest most of the food before you rest for the next 8 to 10 hours.

My Winter Vacation Plan

The winter vacation is coming soon. To spend a meaningful holiday, I have some plans for it.

First, as a student in Grade 9, I am going to study harder to get better grades in the coming year, then I can enter a good high school. Although I will be much busier, I can still have time to relax. Sometimes, when I finish my homework, I will watch a movie and go to the library. Secondly, if we want to enjoy our lives, we must have a healthy body. So I will exercise for half an hour every day, such as playing tennis or running. What's more, I am going to spend more time with my families. I will help my parents to do some housework and communicate more with them. I hope we can understand each other better. Because of the COVID-19, I'm not going to travel anywhere during the winter holiday. I will only visit my grandparents who live in my city.

A good beginning makes a good ending. So I will follow my plans in the winter vacation so that I will have a wonderful holiday.
