In recent years , plenty of short video apps are springing up on the Internet.Does it do good or harm to us? I'd like to share my opinions with you.

On the one hand , videos posted on these apps usually bring us lots of fun and laughter.We can even open up our eyes through these videos since some of them are educational.On the other hand , however , it's easy to lose yourself in these videos.You may even forget the time when watching them.So some think it's a waste of time.

To my point of view , we should carefully choose the videos on the apps to watch.Also , use these apps in a proper way.Always bear in mind that they should help but not harm us.
