65. What can we learn about tigers from the passage?
A. Tigers are large and strong and they look like the king.
B. Tigers can run fast and they have black fur.
C. Many people kill tigers for their fur and meat.
D. Most tigers in the world live in China and India.

D

In my family, all the family members have to follow our family rules. Here are some of them.

◆ Family dinners

My mother makes it a rule that everyone should sit down at the table and have dinner together. I think this is one of the easiest and most important rules to have as a family. At that time, we can tell our family members some of our good or bad things. So we can know each other better.

◆ Following the night-time timetable (时间表)

In my family, different people have different timetables. I think it is hard for me to follow my timetable, but I have to follow it. After dinner we usually have our playtime, and then 7:00 p. m. is bath time. At 7:30 p. m, it is time to start my homework, and then at about 8:30, I finish my homework and have some milk. At 9:00 p. m, I go to bed.

◆ Cleaning up

Cleaning up is all the family members' work. After dinner I help my parents to clean up the kitchen and sweep the floor. After this, I help to put everything in the right place. I should make our bedroom clean and tidy.

66. The writer's mother makes a rule of _____ at home.
A. eating dinners together
B. living together
C. Following the night-time timetable
D. cleaning up the house
67. In the family, who has to do housework? _____.
