One cold Sunday, Mariko and her dad were walking to the store.

"I don't like winter," said Mariko.

Dad waved(挥手) at their neighbor. "I know Mr. Hill hopes spring comes, too."

Mr. Hill was sitting and enjoying the sun in his garden. He waved, and Mariko waved back.

"Mr. Hill loves his garden," said Mariko. Mr. Hill had the most beautiful spring flower garden. It was full of daffodils((黄水仙)).

Dad said, "Yes, he does. And because he is old, it is hard for him to go outside in winter."

At the store, Mariko helped Dad choose milk, bread and vegetables.

“You may choose something for yourself, Mariko,” said Dad.

At first Mariko thought apples would taste good. But then something else caught her eyes, “Oh, Dad, look, daffodils!”

“Is that something you want?” asked Dad.

“Yes!” Mariko said happily.

Mariko couldn’t stop looking at her daffodils all the way home. But when she got to Mr Hill’s house, she stopped, “Maybe I could...”

“Wait here, Dad, please,” she said. “I’ll be right back.”

Mariko ran to Mr. Hill and gave him the daffodils.

D

Dear Anyone Having a Bad Week,

I’m sorry. I have no idea why your week is bad. I don’t know if you try to tell anyone. But I do know that I’m sorry that you’re hurt, or bored, or lonely or lost.

There is something to make you feel better: go outside or look at the trees or look at a baby photo of yourself.

When you are unhappy, you hope that someone say, “Yeah, that sounds really hard.” But in fact, other people often tell you that you should show smiles and put the sadness in the heart. That’s very bad.

I want you to know you can spill (溢出) your bad day all over the places and wear it on the front of your shirt.

I want you to know that you are still pretty (漂亮的) when you are angry or in bad spirits. I hope your day turns around, and that even if it doesn't, you can still find a few moments of beauty or happiness.

Sincerely,
Clara Wagner

61. This letter is for the people _____.
A. in good spirits      B. in bad spirits      C. in danger      D. in difficulties

People know the dangers of fires. It's good for a family to learn how to prepare for a fire. Here are some suggestions:

Put a smoke alarm in the house. Smoke from a fire causes the alarm(报警) to go off. The alarm makes a loud sound. 66 _____

67 _____ Everyone in the family should know all the ways out of the house. If there is a fire, everyone follows the plan to get out. Part of the plan is to check all the windows to make sure they can be opened easily.

Buy fire extinguishers(灭火器) in the house, everyone in the family should know how to use them.

Practice for a fire. Why do fire practice? 68 _____ Everyone in the family should know the following fire rules:

69 _____ The fire can grow more quickly if you open the door. Stay close to the floor! Smoke can be more dangerous than fire, the best air is near the floor because smoke rises.

70 _____ First, stop! Don't run! The fire burns faster because of more air. Drop!

Fall to the floor. Then roll(滚动)! Turning over and over will make the fire go out. Put a blanket (毯子) around you to keep air away from the fire that may still be on you.

A clever family is ready all the time. If there is a fire, don't forget to call 119 for help.

- A. Don't open a hot door!
- B. Make escape plans.
- C. The sound tells everyone to leave the house at once.
- D. Because it can teach children about fire safety.
