Gardening is popular in many parts of the world. It brings us sweet- smelling flowers, fresh fruit and vegetables. But you can get more from your garden.

Gardening helps to keep healthy. Today's people sit indoors for too long and don't get much exercise. When you garden, you have to move around. It's a good chance for you to exercise your body by watering flowers or doing some digging. Also, when you are in your garden, you can feel the warm sunshine. This means you are getting Vitamin D. It helps your body use calcium(钙), which is necessary to keep your bones(骨骼) strong.

Gardening is a great activity to do with children. It gets them off computers, televisions and phones. Gardening can be a great teacher to teach children about nature and healthy eating. It can also help them to understand the meaning of “No pains, no gains”.

Gardening is a great way to meet people and build relationships. When you are gardening, you are outdoors. So it is a perfect time to communicate with your neighbors. Most people love to talk about their hobbies, and so do gardeners. They usually enjoy showing people what they are growing. And most of them enjoy sharing advice and stories about their gardens.

19. When can we get Vitamin D in the garden?

- A. When it's sunny.
- B. When it's cloudy.
- C. When it's snowy.
- D. When it's rainy.

It's a school holiday today. It's warm and the sun is shining. It's the perfect day for an outing. Zack, Vera, Kelly and Tim are discussing what they are going to do. Let's listen and see what happens...

Zack: Hey you guys, it would be a shame to stay inside on a day like this. How about taking the bus to Stanley and going to the beach?

Tim: [excitedly] That sounds great.

Kelly: I'm in! But can we go to the mall first so I can get some suntan oil?

Zack: [hesitantly(犹豫地)] Well, Kelly, I suppose we've got time...

Vera: And we can stop off in Tsim Sha Tsui and get something to eat first. I'm sorry, but I don't think I'll be able to get anything good once we get there.

Zack: I don't know, Vera—it's already eleven o'clock...

Tim: Actually, why don't we have a look at Stanley Market before we go to the beach?

The bus stops right in front of the market. I want to look for some casual shirts and trousers.

Kelly: Oh, yes, Tim, let's do that. Maybe they have some trendy swim suits, and some jewellery...

Zack: [to himself] This is really awful! [to the others] Look, I don't want to go to a restaurant or go shopping—I just want to go to the beach on a nice day. You all said you'd go with me, but if you don't want to, you don't have to. See you later.

[sound of a door opening and closing]

Vera: Somebody's not happy!

Tim: Well, it was his idea to go out, after all.

Kelly: Oh, dear, poor Zack. I'm going to call him.

[on the telephone] Hi, Zack? Look, just wait at the bus stop for me. I'm coming now. I won't go to the mall.

Tim: Tell him I'm coming too. We don't need to stop at the market.

Vera: [sighs(叹气)] Oh, all right. I can risk having lunch at the beach, I guess.

Kelly: [on the telephone] Zack? We're all coming now. We should all enjoy this great day together.

[to the rest] OK, let's go. We shouldn't keep Zack waiting.

Tim: [hurriedly] OK, come on, everybody...[fade]

Hi Li Hua,

How are you? I hope you're fine and not too busy. I can't wait to leave for Hangzhou this summer. But could you please tell me the weather in Hangzhou, especially in summer? Is Kaiyuan Middle School far from the West Lake? How long does it take me to get there from your school? Are there any special rules in your school?

I'm looking forward to your early reply.

Sam

Hi Sam,

I'm looking forward to seeing you!

Yours,

Li Hua
