Benjamin lives in a house across from his office. In the middle of his office and his house is a very big river. It takes him a long time to take a bus to work, so he swims to work and goes back home every day. "Swimming every day makes me relaxed," he said.

How does Benjamin swim across the river? He usually takes a bag. The bag is waterproof. He puts his keys and phones in the bag. He wears sandals, so stones, glass or something else in the river don't hurt his feet. In summer, he swims back home for lunch. But in winter, he has lunch in his office.
